Authorities Satisfied With Juveniles' Constitutional Protection

By BOB MONROE

NEW YORK (AP) — Legal authorities generally expressed satisfaction today with the Supreme Court's extension of constitutional protections to juveniles. Dissenters were outspoken however, one calling it "a dreadful blow to the concept of juvenile court."

Many judges across the nation said in an Associated Press survey that the ruling would entail no change in their procedures and that their courts were already practicing the principles laid down by the high court Monday.

But Superior Court Judge Lloyd Shorett of Seattle, Wash., said: "I think it is a dreadful blow to the concept of juvenile court. It is a long step in the wrong direction. It means the entire concept of attempted reformation by juvenile courts in effect since 1900 will go out the window."

In its 8 to 1 decision, the Supreme Court held that juveniles, like adults, are entitled to the following Bill of Rights safeguards:

1. Notice of the charges placed against them.

2. The right to have an attorney's assistance.

3. The right to confront and cross-examine complainants and other witnesses.

4. Protection against self-incrimination, including the privilege of remaining silent.

5. The right to a transcript of the proceedings.

6. The right to have the case reviewed in higher courts.

Shorett was most unhappy over point 2—the right to attorney.

"Many more juveniles facing the court will have lawyers. They will be advised to say nothing and many will be turned loose for lack of other evidence," he said.

An opposite view was taken by John Pemberton, executive director of the American Civil Liberties Union. In a statement issued here, he said the decision "may well be the most important in the present term of the Supreme Court."

It is important, he explained, "because the law must be seen to practice what it preaches if it is to create incentives in juveniles to rehabilitate themselves."

Another who applauded the decision was Judge Orm W. Ketcham in Washington, D.C. He predicted one long-range effect would be to create greater sympathy in legislatures for juvenile courts and for financing related facilities such as diagnostic centers.

"I am very pleased they are insisting that lawyers be more involved," he said. "Lawyers are more articulate than social workers with legislatures," he added in explanation of his prediction.

A dissenter was Judge Benjamin Schwartz of Cincinnati who said, "The decision is going to radically change the juvenile court's procedure. It turns the juvenile court, a court of equity, into a criminal court."

He said, "We won't be able to keep youngsters under detention and they will have the same constitutional rights as adults. More youngsters will be roaming the street who should be in detention."

Juvenile Court Judge Maurice Cohill of Pittsburgh expressed concern over the right-to-remain-silent clause, saying "juveniles should have this right.

"They must speak out and tell us their problems if we are to fulfill our rehabilitation function," he said. "I don't like to be in the position of having to determine a kid's fate if he remains silent."

Also in Pittsburgh, Dist. Atty. Robert Duggan said the decision might adversely affect juveniles in the long run.

"Once an appeal is lodged," he noted, "it becomes a matter of record, a record that will follow a youth through life."

Typically however, jurists foresaw little change as a result of the ruling.

San Francisco Juvenile Court Judge Raymond O'Connor said, "This decision will not change our procedure one whit. We have been operating under these rules for more than two years."

"In New York, it won't do anything," commented Charles Schinitsky, head law guardian of Family Court. He noted the state had passed legislation in 1962 incorporating all six rules laid down by the court.

De Gaulle Hits War Policies

PARIS (AP) — President Charles de Gaulle, in an obvious reference to the Vietnamese war, called today for an end "to the scandal of foreign intervention in Asia." The French president, in answer to a news conference question about French policy toward the war, told the hundreds of newsmen in the Elysee ballroom France would continue to oppose foreign —meaning American—involvement in Vietnam.

"The scandal of foreign intervention in Asia must cease; that is the path the government intends to follow," he declared.

Faced with a national general strike, the president turned to domestic problems. He pledged his government to improve social and economic conditions in the country, the aim of his move to obtain emergency powers in these areas from Parliament.

At the same time, he warned members of the shaky Gaullist parliamentary coalition that any attempt to weaken this thin majority would be "contrary to political morality and the public interest."

This was an apparent reference to Valery Giscard D'Estaing's 42-member Independent Republican party. The Independent Republicans, junior partners in the Gaullist coalition, have shown themselves lukewarm to the government's move for emergency powers, but have not said they would block it.

Humphrey Asks OK Of School Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey called today for passage of what he termed President Johnson's greatest single achievement—the multibillion-dollar school aid bill.

Humphrey criticized proponents of a now pending Republican version of the bill and said they were "self-professed friends of education."

The vice president made his remarks in an address prepared for an educators' conference.

The Republican version, which calls for federal aid to be made in lump sum payments to the states, is being sponsored by a coalition of Southern Democrats and some Republicans.

These congressmen, said Humphrey, "seem willing to risk reviving all the old controversies, reopening all the old wounds of the past 20 years and more."

"We cannot go once more down that blind alley," the vice president said. "We cannot afford to take apart what we built with such pain and efforts."

Humphrey also urged the educatrs to support the administration's summer jobs programs for the underprivileged.

SQUELCHED TRY

CHICAGO (AP) — Red China tried to head off a January attempt by Hanoi to end the Vietnam war, the Chicago Daily News says in a copyright story.

SEVERED WING OF the single-engine Piper plane, which crashed northeast of Rupert Monday night killing two men, indicates damage resulting when the motor stalled as the pilot attempted to make a low altitude turn without sufficient airspeed. State Restaurant And Beverage Convention Is Being Held Here

Selection of the Waitress of the Year and a golf tournament and fishing contest are among the remaining agenda items for the annual Idaho Restaurant and Beverage Association convention, which began Monday at the Holiday Inn.

More than 100 delegates from across the state have registered for the four-day event, the first to be held in Twin Falls since the group's organization.

Activities began with registration at 10 a.m. Monday, a board meeting at noon and the official call to order at 2 p.m., Egon Kroll, Twin Falls city Commission chairman, welcomed the delegates.

The IRBA was formed to unite restaurant and beverage operators into one organization dedicated to the promotion and advancement of their respective businesses, a spokesman said. Among the association's aims are the promotion of a feeling of fraternity and good will among its members and to assist in the enactment of local, state and federal laws regarding beverage and food.

Local members of the organization include The Alley, Blue Lakes Country Club, The Cove, Depot Grill, Elks Lodge No. 1183, Holiday Inn, Kays Supper Club, Military Inn, Sapphire Lounge, Royal Lounge, Shamrock; St. Regis Club, Log Tavern and Perrine Lounge, all Twin Falls, and the R & R Lounge, Buhl.

Tuesday's activities began at 9:30 a.m. with a general membership meeting, Ernie Nelsen, president, Lewiston, presiding. A film, "The History of American Whiskey," was presented at 10 a.m. by a representative from Calvert Distilleries Co.

The convention luncheon was to be held at noon, with Lin Pedrick, Detroit, Mich., as guest speaker.

One of the highlights of the day was to be a golf tournament and fishing contest at the Blue Lakes Country Club, starting at 2 p.m. Appropriate prizes for contestants and an old-fashioned Beer Party were to be featured. The event is hosted by Idaho Brewers representatives.

Activities scheduled for Wednesday include business sessions, visiting of display booths and a luncheon at noon with Ray Rostron, Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce manager, as speaker.

Food seminars will be held at 2:30 p.m. Leo Soran will moderate the catering seminar and Eddie Howa will moderate a seminar on drive-ins. Both men are from Twin Falls.

The Waitress of the Year Award will be presented by Elsie Averett, award chairman, Nampa, at 8 p.m. Wednesday. Another award, the Chef De Quisine Display plaque, also will be presented.

Entries for the chef's award will be on display from 3 to 8 p.m. Wednesday at the Holiday Inn.

New officers for the organization will be chosen Wednesday morning and installed at the convention banquet Wednesday night. Current officers include Mr. Nelsen, president; Jim Lash, Twin Falls, secretary-treasurer; Ed Middlemist, Boise, executive secretary, and Bill Bowman, Lewiston; Elsie Averett, Nampa; Sig Petersen, Kellogg; Gene Copp, Twin Falls, and C. T. O'Neal, Blackfoot, all directors.

'Super' Blast Delays Water Project Work

Contractors engaged in the Twin Falls water improvement project are progressing well despite a slight setback last week, City Manager Herb Derrick said Tuesday.

Mr. Derrick said an oversized blast by crews of the Newell J. Olson Co., Logan, Utah, working on a sewer line along Falls Avenue, resulted in delays for another contractor, Crom Prestressing Co., working nearby on a site for the five-million gallon water storage reservoir.

The site for the concrete tank was filled with rock and debris when the blast discharged in a nearby sewer trench. The Crom Prestressing Co. has been instructed to proceed with cleanup work in order to begin their steel work, and has been given additional time for their completion date, Mr. Derrick said.

Kloepfer Construction Co., engaged in laying the 36-inch steel and concrete pipe on Washington St. North, is encountering considerable rock, the manager said, but is installing up to 180 feet of pipe per day.

The Olson firm, Mr. Derrick said, also is making progress on a pump station it is constructing in the Snake River canyon.

"From progress by the three contractors, there should be no question but that all three contracts in this phase of the water project will be completed by next spring, the target date for the second phase," the city manager added.

Festival

Six choruses composed of more than 375 Twin Falls junior and senior high school students will participate in the fourth annual Festival of Choirs at 8 p.m. today in the Twin Falls High School gymnasium.

Mrs. Glad Robinson Youse, Baxter Springs, Kan., one of the nation's foremost composers, will be featured guest at the performance and all of the music to be sung during the festival has been composed by her. Stan Owens and Mrs. Richard Baun are directors.

Charges Are Filed In 2 Burley Cases

BURLEY—First degree murder charges were filed Monday afternoon in Probate Court against Lupe Lara, 23, Heyburn, accused of the fatal shooting of Francisco Martinez, 19, Burley Labor Camp, Saturday aftenoon.

Lara, appearing Monday afternoon before Probate Judge Vern Carter, with his attorney Dean Kloepfer, requested a preliminary hearing. No date was set for the hearing.

Also appearing before Judge Carter Monday afternoon were four men charged with the Saturday afternoon robbery of Willie C. Crawford, 19, an AWOL marine from Camp Pendleton, Calif.

Requesting preliminary hearings were Demetric Trujillo, 21;

Bulletin

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Len B. Jordan, D-Idaho, underwent tests today in the Bethesda Naval Hospital which an aide said were to determine if he had suffered a slight stroke.

Jordan entered the hospital Monday, his 68th birthday, after he became ill while working in his Capitol office. The aide, John Martin, said the senator felt dizzy and possibly had a temporary loss of memory.

Martin said a doctor at the hospital told him Jordan had an abnormal temperature which could have caused the dizziness and a lapse of memory, and that tests probably would show whether he had suffered a stroke.

Plane Crash Near Rupert Probed; Two Men Killed

BURLEY — Federal Aviation Agency officials Tuesday were investigating the crash of a single-engine Piper plane northeast of Rupert Monday evening which claimed the lives of a Rupert pilot and his passenger from Nevada. The crash occurred about 7:45 p.m. when, according to witnesses, Lawrence Guisasola, 50, attempted to make a tight turn without sufficient airspeed. His passenger was Evan Dee (Ollie) Olsen, 47, Sparks, Nev. The men both were killed instantly when the plane plunged into a grain field in the Jackson area of Cassia county, which is near Rupert. A niece, who was at Mr. Guisasola's trailer house at the time of the crash, said the men had been to Salt Lake City where Mr. Olsen was visiting his children.

She stated the red and white plane had circled low over the trailer house, located six miles east and two miles north of Rupert, so that she would know the men had returned.

Cause of the crash was explained as a low altitude stall as the pilot attempted to turn without sufficient airspeed. The craft landed in a grain field near the trailer house and did not burn. The plane reportedly bounced and skidded to within 150 feet of the trailer after the impact.

Mr. Guisasola was born Nov. 19, 1916, at Mackay and attended schools in Hailey and Bellevue. He married Clara Clements, Richfield. She died April 22, 1967, after heart surgery.

He was a heavy equipment operator in construction work. After leaving Bellevue, he moved to Battle Mountain, Nev., later living in Fernley. Just recently he had moved to the Rupert area.

Survivors include four sons, Larry Guisasola and Sherril Guisasola, both Winnemucca, Nev.; Billy Guisasola, Mountain Home, and Eddie Guisasola, Rupert; three daughters, Carol Guisasola, Mountain Home; Mrs. Laura Lee, Seattle, and Candietta Guisasola, Rupert; mother, Mrs. Pearl Guisasola, Rupert; five brothers, William Howarth, Seattle; Sam Guisasola and Frank Guisasola, both Rupert; Luis Guisasola, Wallace, and Charles Guisasola, with Air Force in Florida; one sister, Mrs. Marie Ivie, Hailey.

Funeral services for Mr. Guisasola will be conducted at 10:30 a.m. Thursday at the Bird Funeral Chapel, Hailey, by Rev. Eric Jungbauer, pastor of the Hailey Community Church. Last rites will be held in the Hailey Cemetery.

Evan Dee (Ollie) Olsen, 47, Sparks, Nev., was born in 1920 in Ephraim, Utah, was married in 1938 there. Later they were divorced. He worked as a draftsman, was a World War II veteran and belonged to the LDS church.

Survivors include two sons; Kim Olsen and Val Olsen, all Salt Lake City; three brothers, Lynn Olsen, Logan, Utah, and Arthur Olsen, Helena, Mont., and Roland Olsen, Ephraim; four sisters, Mrs. Dee Peterson, Granger, Utah; and Mrs. Lenn Jensen, Ephraim; Mrs. Eugene Allred, Salt Lake City, and Mrs. Leonard Jutkins, Kearns, Utah.

The body will be sent by McCulloch Funeral Home to Ephraim, Utah, for funeral services and final rites.

City Okays Variance On Library Addition

City Attorney William Langley was instructed Monday night to prepare necessary papers for granting a zoning variance to pave the way for construction of an addition to the Twin Falls Public Library. The city commissioners will visit the library property before a final vote on the request for variance which has been recommended by the Planning and Zoning Commission. Instructions to the city attorney came after a public hearing Monday night on a Library Board request for permission to construct their building within 10 feet of the front property line and to the alley line at the rear.

Library officials pointed out they need the entire space to permit construction of the library addition and bookmobile facilities.

Plans call for a front entrance on Fifth Street East which would make this a front street and normally require a 20-foot set back. Only one protest was voiced during a Planning and Zoning Commission hearing and during the Monday night city commission hearing. The protest was from Mr. and Mrs. Claude Mendiola who stated the building would cut off their view and damage Mrs. Mendiola's business.

Mrs. Mendiola operates a beauty salon from her home.

Another zoning hearing ended favorably for the property owner. City commissioners approved a variance for the Bergerchef drive-in on Blue Lakes Boulevard North to permit their standard sign. On request of the Planning and Zoning Commission, the sign request was approved, providing it not be operated as a nuisance. A city-wide sign study is now under way.

City Commissioners also heard the second reading of an ordinance on self service and coin operated gasoline filling stations. They voted against suspension of the rules for an ordinance permitting the sale and use of "safe and sane" fireworks in Twin Falls to comply with newly adopted state legislation. Instead the first reading

Memorial To John Flatt Is Proposed

Twin Falls High School senior class officers met with school trustees Monday night to discuss the possibility of the class of 1967 bequeathing to the school a memorial to the late John Flatt.

Each graduating class traditionally leaves some type of a gift to the school, and this year's class proposed a memorial to the long-time chemistry teacher who died earlier this year.

A vocational agriculture teacher was hired at the meeting to replace John Lawrence, recently named as principal of the senior high school. Danny O. Danielson, 27, will be taking his first teaching assignment in Twin Falls. He received a BS in agriculture at the University of Idaho and has recently returned from a tour of duty in Vietnam.

Three other teachers also were hired, two for O'Leary Junior High School and one for the high school, Ernest Ragland, superintendent, reported.

Alvin E. Busby, who received a BS from the University of Idaho, will be teaching physical education and health at O'Leary Junior High School. He also will handle two coaching assignments.

Horace Robert Stradley Jr., also with a BS degree from the University of Idaho, will teach ninth grade science at O'Leary Junior High School and will have one or two coaching assignments.

His wife will teach German at the senior high school. She received a BA degree from the University of Idaho.

Four Years Of Kennedy Round Talks Conclude

GENEVA (AP) — More than four years of Kennedy Round negotiations have finally ended with agreement to cut tariffs an estimated 33 to 35 per cent on world trade now worth $40 billion a year.

The accord between the United States and the world's major commercial nations was reached just before midnight Monday after four intensive day and night sessions during which the negotiations appeared doomed at one point.

The reductions finally hammered out fell short of the 50 per cent over-all cut that had been sought, but they far surpassed any achieved before in tariff negotiations.

The agreement affects more than 80 nations and is expected to result in a big increase in world trade.

William Roth, head of the U.S. delegation, said the result was of "tremendous world importance." He predicted that it would affect between $15 billion and $16 billion in U.S. imports and exports.

The United States exports $27 billion worth of goods a year and imports $19 billion worth.

The principal agreements included in the final package were:

— Tariff reductions on about 6,300 industrial and farm items in world trade, from live animals to waste and scrap. The cuts are reciprocal with every participating nation benefiting from new opportunities to export to the others.

— A higher minimum world grain price of $1.73 a bushel for hard red winter wheat ready to ship at ports on the Gulf of Mexico.

— An international food aid program of 4.5 million tons a year, with contributions from other major industrial countries as well as the United States.

— An antidumping accord to protect businessmen from foreign competitors trying to export goods below cost.

Most of the benefits of the lowered tariffs will go to businessmen, especially those in the import and export fields. Some of the savings will be passed on to the consumers.

It will be at least six to eight weeks, however, before businessmen will know what benefits will accrue to them.

The deadline for the signing by the 53 nations taking part in the Kennedy Round negotiations is June 30. That day marks the expiration of President Johnson's powers under the Trade Expansion Act of 1962 to cut American tariffs as much as 50 per cent on almost all of the 6,300 items on the U.S. tariff list. Because President John F. Kennedy pushed the 1962 act through the U.S. Congress, the negotiations that resulted from it were given his name.

Congressional approval is not required for most of the tariff reductions that were negotiated. But Roth told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee in March that the agreements on grain would be incorporated into a separate treaty which would be submitted to the Senate for ratification.

Samuelson May Adopt Policy Concerning Reappointments

By EARLE L. JESTER

BOISE (AP) — Gov. Don W. Samuelson said Tuesday he may adopt a policy of not reappointing any member of a state commission who has served at least two terms.

"I am," he told his news conference, "thinking very seriously of making this a rule."

The governor told his news conference, too, there is a possibility a special session of the legislature may be needed to solve the problem of financing assistance for blind persons.

It could come before July 1.

The 1967 Legislature created a commission for the blind and transferred to it functions now handled by the Department of Public Assistance. It made no direct appropriation to the new commission, however, and an attorney general's ruling said

Search For Lost Plane Is Resumed

HELENA, Mont. (AP) — Search operations for a light airplane carrying a Wisconsin family of five resumed Tuesday morning in the Pole Canyon area of the Tobacco Root Mountains about 15 miles southeast of Whitehall.

The aircraft, a Cessna 182, was carrying the Rev. C. E. Cone Jr., his wife, and their three children, Chester, 6, Johnny, 5, and Jimmy, 4.

The Cone family was on a flight from East Troy, Wis., to Withrow, Wash.

Search coordinator Jack Wilson of the Montana Aeronautics Commission said search planes reported turbulent air in the region where the missing plane was last heard from.

The Rev. Mr. Cone had radioed a report at 9:47 a.m. Monday in which he said he was experiencing "extreme difficulty."

Federal Aviation Agency authorities calculated the Rev. Mr. Cone's last radio message was made at an altitude of about 10,500 feet over Whitehall. The mountain range near Whitehall reaches, at the highest, an altitude of 10,700 feet.

SYNOPSIS AND AGRICULTURAL SUMMARY

A pleasant sunny day is in progress in Southern Idaho valleys today. Clear skies and mostly light winds are the rule this forenoon.

High pressure in the upper levels has moved into the Intermountain Region and is expected to remain quite strong today and Wednesday. Warmer air in the lower levels still is moving in from the west and our warming trend will continue today and level off to some extent on Wednesday. Fair weather and warm days are forecast today and Wednesday.

A weak storm will be moving across southern Canada tomorrow causing some higher cloudiness at times in our valleys. This will be followed by a little stronger disturbance aloft on Thursday moving across the northern Intermountain Region. The outlook for Thursday is for partly cloudy skies and slightly cooler.

Maximum temperatures today will be in the mid 70s to mid 80s in southwestern and Magic Valleys and in the 70s in southeastern valleys. Maximums on Wednesday will be in the 70s to mid 80s. Minimum temperatures tonight will be in the 40s except for some of the higher valleys.

2 City Vehicles Have Collision

Two Twin Falls City owned vehicles collided at 8:35 a.m. Tuesday in the 1700 block of Addison Avenue East resulting in approximately $350 damage.

City police said a street sweeper, operated by Henry Wambolt, 53, 304 Quincy St. an employe of the street department, was traveling along Addison Avenue East in the process of sweeping the street. The heavy vehicle pulled out to go around a parked car just as a city owned automobile from the fire department was passing the sweeper.

Bobby Bopp, assistant fire chief, was driving the 1963 sedan. Damage was estimated at $300 to the sedan and $50 to the sweeper. There were no injuries and no citations.

Boy, 10, Escapes Injury In Crash

A 10-year-old Twin Falls boy escaped serious injuries Monday afternoon when his bicycle collided with an automobile on Fifth Avenue North at 4:47 p.m.

Officers said the boy was traveling northeast and carrying a large package on his bicycle. The package began to slip and as he grabbed for it, he pulled his bicycle into the path of a vehicle driven by Elsie M. Urie, 75, 449 Fifth Ave. W.

He suffered minor cuts and bruises when thrown from the bicycle.

Hard Fighting Rages In Delta Area

SAIGON (AP) — Hard fighting at both ends of South Vietnam was reported today, with 113 guerrillas killed in two battles with American infantrymen in the Mekong Delta and 52 of the enemy and 16 Americans killed in three clashes in the northern sector.

Red rocket and mortar attacks continued around the clock in the northern provinces, and the Communists lobbed 60 mortar rounds into the U.S. military advisory compound before dawn in downtown Hue.

The U.S. Command reported 99 air missions over North Vietnam Monday, mostly against trucks, roads and river barges, and announced the loss of an F105 Thunderchief jet which the Pentagon said may have crashed in Red China. It was the 542nd U.S. combat plane reported downed in the air war against North Vietnam.

U.S. officials also announced that 85 Vietnamese civilians were killed in Viet Cong terrorist attacks last week—nearly double the number the week before—while 97 were wounded and 78 were kidnaped. The victims included five workers in the government pacification program killed and two wounded.

Charges

John O. Trujillo, 19, and Anthony Herrera, 18. Gilberto Vigil, 19, asked for legal time to consult an attorney. Judge Carter gave him two days to hire a lawyer.

The other three men charged in the robbery are represented by Norman Nielson.

Lara is accused of shooting Mr. Martinez about 4 p.m. Saturday between the Burley Sugar Factory and the stockyards. He is being held without bond in Cassia County Jail.

No charges were filed for the stabbing as Crawford did not know who did the stabbing. Crawford is listed in good condition at Cassia Memorial Hospital.

The four men are in Cassia County Jail in lieu of $500 and $750 bonds.

Former Resident Taken By Death

South Korean Ambassador To Be Named

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House announced Tuesday that William J. Porter, until recently deputy ambassador to South Vietnam, will be nominated to be ambassador to South Korea.

In Seoul, Porter will replace Winthrop Brown, who is to become a special assistant to Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

Porter has been a foreign service officer since 1936, the year he was naturalized as a U.S. citizen. He is a native of Staleybridge, England.

Porter has served in diplomatic posts in various parts of the world. He was assigned to Saigon Sept. 4, 1965, serving as deputy ambassador to Henry Cabot Lodge.

When Ellsworth Bunker succeeded Lodge recently, Eugene Locke who had been ambassador to Pakistan, succeeded Porter as deputy ambassador.

2 Accidents Occur At Site Of Road Job

The scene of two Monday morning accidents is part of a "straightening out" project currently under way by the State Department of Highways.

The cure, long a traffic trouble spot, is one-fourth of a mile north of Rogerson, about in the center of a 3.1-mile construction project scheduled for completion this fall.

Blaine Sessions, district engineer for the State Highway Department, said that as of May 1, Peter Kiewit and Sons Construction Co., were about 10 per cent finished with the project. Cost of the span, beginning south of Rogerson and ending north of Dry Creek, is $299,953.

A wooden bridge over Dry Creek also will be removed and a large pipe will be put in, Mr. Sessions said.

The curve, scene of numerous serious and minor accidents, is one of several on U. S. Highway 93 which will be removed as the road bypasses Rogerson.

Neither of the Monday morning accidents was serious, but two drivers were cited by Idaho State Police.

The first, at 6:15 a.m., occurred when a 1958 Chevrolet driven by Robert D. Egan, 26, Burley, failed to negotiate the curve. Officers said the car was traveling at an excessive rate of speed and went about 400 feet off the road, landing near some railroad tracks. Several traffic and fence posts and wiring was torn down.

The second wreck happened when a 1954 Cadillac driven by Merrill R. Young, Jackpot, also approached the curve too fast. Officers said his vehicle ran into the rear end of a semi-truck driven by Harold R. Caldwell, 49, Jerome. They said the Cadillac struck the truck's rear dual wheels which acted as cushions, and bounced back, avoiding a more serious accident.

No one was injured in either accident. Mr. Young and Mr. Egan were both cited for failure to keep their vehicles under control.

Murtaugh Rail Agency To Close

BOISE (AP)—The Idaho Public Utilities Commission reported Tuesday it has authorized the Railway Express Agency, Inc., to close its office at Murtaugh, in Twin Falls County.

The PUC said the Murtaugh office has handled an average of only six shipments per month during the past several months. Business for the Murtaugh community can be handled by the REA office at Kimberly, 17 miles west, the PUC said.

Members of Bethel No. 56, International Order of Job's Daughters, will meet at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Masonic Temple. They will honor their seniors.

Twin Falls Rotary Club members will meet at noon Wednesday at the Snake River Conservation Research Center, Kimberly. Lunch will be served and there will be a tour of research facilities.

The Magic Valley Art Guild will meet at 8 p.m. Thursday at the Harry Barry Park Building. William Grange will show slides of the Northwest.

Dr. John Wesley White, Atlanta, Ga., Billy Graham Evangelistic Crusade associate who will conduct the Magic Valley Crusade scheduled for Aug. 6-20 at the Twin Falls High School Stadium, will address a meeting of Magic Valley clergymen and laymen at a banquet to be held at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at the American Legion Hall. The group will meet to further plan the Crusade.

The Triple Link Club and the Primrose Rebekah Lodge No. 76 will hold a rummage sale from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday and Saturday at the Odd Fellows Hall, Twin Falls.

Annual Scout Banquet Set Here May 25

The Annual District Banquet of the Southside District Boy Scouts of America, will be held at 7 p.m. Thursday, May 25, at the Twin Falls American Legion Hall, Dr. Jack McNees, chairman, announced Tuesday.

The annual event is held to honor those unit leaders who have greatly contributed to the Cubs, Scouts and Explorers who have completed the requirements for training awards and scoutleader keys. Those individuals who have received Silver Beavers in the district also will receive special recognitions.

Lloyd Webb, former District Court Judge, will be guest speaker with members of the Snake River Area Council Executive Board, who will discuss law and the youth of today.

During the business meeting part of the banquet, the 1967-68 district and council calendar will be presented for approval and officers for the next program year will be elected.

The Southside District is a subdivision of the Snake River Area Council covering Twin Falls County exclusive of Buhl and Castleford, plus townships around Jackpot, Nev., and the Eden, Hazelton, Hunt area of Jerome County. The district is responsible for assisting the Cub Packs, Scout Troops and Explorer Posts in carrying out their program to the boys.

All Scouters and parents are invited to attend the banquet. Tickets are available from the Scout Service Center or the institutional representatives of each Scout sponsoring group.

of the ordinance was heard.

Junior Chamber of Commerce and Moose Lodge members have asked for the ordinance as they plan to sell the non-explosive fireworks items for the Fourth of July. If the three readings of the ordinance are held they would not be permitted to sell the items prior to the holiday.

The proposed ordinance, patterned from one adopted in Boise, would permit the sale of "safe and sane" fireworks from June 26 to July 26 each year, providing sales firms met requirements of safety regulations provided in the ordinance.

Under present city ordinance the fireworks of any kind cannot be sold within the city limits. City officials explained the state law makes use of the "safe and sane" fireworks legal within the state, but the cities can still prohibit sale within city limits. Board members felt such regulations would be unrealistic as they could be sold outside city limits and used within the city.

Approval was also voted on a new subdivision known as the Hansing- Wills subdivision located in the northeast part of the city.

Dr. C. L Manners of the Blue Lakes Veterinarian Clinic was approved to continue operating of the city dog pound at a cost as quoted in a bid he submitted earlier in the year.

Hearing On Road Death Case Opens

JEROME— Preliminary hearing for a 25-year-old Jerome man charged with involuntary manslaughter in the traffic death of an elderly Jerome man here April 8 began Tuesday morning before Probate Judge Russell Shaud.

Kent Mellies, 25, Route 2, Jerome, is being represented by James May, Twin Falls attorney. Mellies has been free on $1,000 bond since the traffic accident April 8 which claimed the life of Antone R. Hagerman, 76, who was pronounced dead on arrival at St. Benedict's Hospital the evening of April 8.

Police reported the accident occurred while Mr. Haberman was in the crosswalk at the intersection of South Lincoln Street and Avenue C, less than a block from his home.

Delegates To Nazarene Meet Arrive

Approximately 650 delegates and visitors from 55 Nazarene Churches throughout southern Idaho and eastern Oregon are expected to arrive in Twin Falls in the next two days for the annual World Mission Convention and District Assembly at the First Church of the Nazarene, 401 Sixth Ave. N., Twin Falls.

Registration for the Mission Convention was held Tuesday afternoon at the church, with meetings to begin Tuesday night and continue all day Wednesday.

The District Assembly will be held Thursday and Friday. Both meetings will include church business for the year and election of officers.

This year delegates also will be elected to the general convention and assembly which will be held in Kansas City in June of 1968. The general meetings are nation-wide and held only once every four years.

Mrs. Lela Jackson, wife of the former Twin Falls pastor, Emmett, is president and will preside over the Mission Convention. Dr. V. H. Lewis, general superintendent, Kansas City, Mo., will preside at the District Assembly.

death was a director emeritus.

He was born Oct. 22, 1878, in Cornell, Ill. He graduated from Iowa Wesleyan University in 1896, and came to Twin Falls in 1908 from South Dakota. He married Mayme Swan on Nov. 28, 1943. The Boy Scouts' Camp Bradley was named after his late son, James Robert Bradley, who died July 20, 1961.

He was a life member of Twin Falls Lodge No. 45 AF and AM and past master and treasurer of the lodge for 45 years, was a member of the Twin Falls Elks Lodge No. 1183, and was a past member of the Twin Falls Rotary Club, Chamber of Commerce, and a board member of Twin Falls School District and Twin Falls Library.

Surviving, besides his widow, is a nephew, James B. Tucker, Jerome. He was preceded in death by two sons, a sister and a brother.

Funeral services will be conducted at 4 p.m. Wednesday at the White Mortuary Chapel by Dr. Harold Nye. Final rites will be held at Twin Falls Cemetery. Friends may call at White Mortuary until 3 p.m. Wednesday.

Governor Back

BOISE (AP) — Idaho Gov. Don W. Samuelson is back in the capital today after a speaking tour in Coeur d'Alene, where he announced a spending seminar and dismissed reports of teacher dissatisfaction.

Speaking to the Coeur d'Alene Chamber of Commerce Monday, Samuelson said he planned a conference of state government officials to discuss spending.

funds provided the public assistance department cannot be used by the commission.

Samuelson said a transfer of funds had been planned to finance the commission from the department's appropriation.

The governor, in response to a question, said he believes that when a person has served for some time on a policy-making agency he sometimes "cannot see the forest for the trees."

The comment came when Samuelson was asked regarding an appointment to the State Fish and Game Commission. The term of Frank Cullen of Coeur d'Alene—his third—has expired and Samuelson was asked whether he would be reappointed. The governor declined to answer directly, but made his comment regarding possible policy.

He said he applies the two-term limit to the office of governor, too, and would not "under any circumstances" run for more than two terms.

Regarding other appointments, Samuelson said he:

—Will appoint Sen. J. Burns Beal, Moore, a Republican, as state director of the Office of Economic Opportunity, an agency that is part of the State Department of Employment.

—Has "a whole list of applications" for the vacancy on the Public Utilities Commission that will come with the retirement, July 1, of A. O. Sheldon, Boise.

—Hasn't "formulated any plans" regarding the superintendent of state police. Earlier reports indicated Supt. A. E. Perkins might be replaced. The governor said he might make a change within the next month but might not make it at all.

—Has appointed members of the new State Cherry Commission and the reactivated Prune Commission.

Samuelson said his meeting with department heads, announced in a talk Monday in Coeur d'Alene, is scheduled for Friday afternoon in the statehouse. He said the purpose will be to review new budgeting procedure established by the 1967 legislature.

A THOUGHT TO REMEMBER

DALE PATTERSON

A fellow was asked, "How is the world treating you?" He replied, "The world treats me fine; the people in it don't."

There are those who say the world is worse than ever. Actually, what is meant is SOME of the people treat other people worse than ever. However, if we will only look around us, we will see vast goodness also. We hear more of the bad things than of the good. Screaming headlines of crime, disaster, destruction and tragedy steal the front pages. Kind deeds and friendly thoughts receive less publicity because they lack the punch of emotional impact.

From time to time, we will point to the goodness we see from day to day — and it is abundant. These deeds on the local, national and international scene are bright rays of decency and goodness. These rays pierce the publicized dark clouds of people's neglect, oppression and disrespect for the dignity of man. It will be a pleasure to spotlight the goodness and decency of mankind as we see it.

Red Chinese Stage Protest On British

HONG KONG (AP) — Hundreds of Chinese chanting quotations from Mao Tse-tung forced a Hong Kong court today to adjourn the trial of Chinese arrested in last week's Communist riots.

Huge anti-British demonstrations were reported in Peking and Canton.

British colonial officials put 20,000 police and troops on alert after the Chinese government accused them of "fascist atrocities" in quelling three days of rioting that stemmed from a strike of factory workers over wages and unemployment.

Peking's note to the British government in London demanded the release of nearly 400 Chinese arrested during the rioting in a Kowloon industrial district.

British authorities in London had no immediate comment.

About 50 Chinese spectators crowded into one small courtroom where some of those arrested go on trial today. The crowd chanted from Mao's works while 300 Chinese jamming the corridors stamped their feet in unison and shouted for the release of the defendants.

Unable to restore order, Magistrate D. A. Davies adjourned court and returned the defendants to a cell block in the building.

About 250 of those arrested in the riots already have pleaded guilty and been sentenced to jail terms ranging from one to 18 months.

Note Is Held As Clue In Bomb Scare

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—A crudely written note demanding $75,000 held a clue today to the bomb threat which sent some 2,500 guests scurrying out of seven hotels in three states.

Guests at plush hotels in Nevada, California and Arizona were evacuated Monday after a homemade bomb containing four tubes of black powder was found in a 12th-floor room at the Sahara Hotel here.

The note found with the bomb demanded $75,000 for revealing the location of explosive devices supposedly planted in other hotels owned by the Del E. Webb Corp. But searchers were unable to find any other bombs.

The note warned: "The bomb inside this closet is not movable in any direction and is set to explode in exactly five hours from the time you are notified of it's presents."

Demolition experts, after lining the room with sandbags, mattresses and pillows, pulled the bomb off the wall with a long rope and then rendered it harmless.

They said it was powerful enough to damage the room in which it was set, but not other parts of the hotel.

COLLEGE-BOUND STUDENTS at Twin Falls High School discuss scholarships they have received with school counselor, Kenneth Kail, right. Scholarships Offered To T. F. Students Hit Record

The tinkers, tailors and candlestick makers of yesteryear have given way to the physicists, architects and computer analysts of today's rapidly growing occupational field.

If the number of scholarships presented to this year's Twin Falls High School graduating class is any indication, many of its members will be joining ranks in highly specialized fields.

Kenneth Kail, counselor at Twin Falls High School, said that, so far, scholarships and financial aid offered seniors at that school have surpassed any total from previous years. He said about 60 students have been offered about 75 scholarships, with several scholarships still not announced.

The total amount offered is $220,719, with the average amount more than $2,500. He said, however, that all cannot be accepted because several students have been offered scholarships to more than one institution.

Mr. Kail said a more realistic way to figure the total scholarships would be to "count only scholarships and financial aid which the class of 1967 can accept will be about $135,199.

They are Mary Lynne Arrington, Altrusa Club and Ricks College; Vickie Atwood, Vickie Hawes, Terry Radtke, Steve Taylor and Frank Wolfe, all Idaho; Gary Bond, Richard Johnson, Lynette Myers, Janice Prather, Jerry Routh and Steve Stoll, all College of Idaho; Dan Boyd, Darla Dietz, Jerry Christian, Beverly Hansen and Clifford Hinkle, all Northwest Nazarene College; David Brown, University of Utah.

Patricia Chupa, Antioch College; Debbie Curtis, Beauty Arts Academy; Susan Domowitz, Future Teachers of America; Ken Eklund, Stanford University; John Farrar, Marvin Gunderson, Paul Shimp, Renee Teasley and Robert Thompson, all University of Idaho; Doug Flint, Idaho State University; Patricia Guerney, Ricks College; Peggy Hammer, Twin Falls Bank and Trust; Patricia Harmer, Barrett Hatch, Janis Victor, Bonnie Miller and Mary Sheppard, all Brigham Young University, and David Carr and Bruce Smith, both Whitman College.

Gomer Davis, Alice Simonds and Julie Simonds, all Veterans' Administration; William Hoffman, Arizona State University; Diana Hopperstad, Rogers Brothers Seed Co.; Dennis LaMance, Northwest College; Connie Partinsen, Sears Scholarship; Rhonda Miracle, Utah State University; Nancy Williams, Exchange Club; Make Winterholer, Thespians, and Julie Yearsley, University of Denver.

U. S. Jet May Have Crashed In Red China

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon says a U.S. Air Force jet may have crashed in Red China after being hit by North Vietnamese antiaircraft fire.

The unsolicited report from the Pentagon came Monday only a few hours after the State Department denied three-week-old Communist Chinese charges about alleged U.S. bombings of Red China.

The Pentagon statement said the plane was hit during a Monday attack on military targets near Kep, North Vietnam, about 32 nautical miles northeast of Hanoi.

The pilot of the damaged jet was last heard reporting by radio that he was "heading out," said the Pentagon. The statement said the plane's course indicated the pilot was headed toward the North Vietnam-mainland China border.

Spokesmen said "heading out" could have meant the plane was dropping out of formation or that its crew was bailing out.

The Pentagon said it had no word of the plane's two-man crew.

Airline Says Commuter Route Will Open Soon

SEATTLE (AP) — West Coast Airlines announced Monday it will inaugurate nonstop "MiniLiner" commuter service in mid-June between Sun Valley, Idaho and Salt Lake City.

The "MiniLiner" is a twin-engine, eight-place Piper plane. It cruises at 200 miles per hour.

The airline said it would also begin nonstop commuter service from Boise to Ontario and Baker, Ore., and Pasco, Wash. in June.

'Dirty Little War'

A perceptive analysis of the Vietnam war — and of American attitudes toward it — has appeared in a country that is taking no active participation in that war.

What is happening in Vietnam is "the first war of its kind," says a recent issue of the respected British journal, The Economist.

It is not the kind of war that can be explained in the traditional categories of American foreign policy. It is not a "war to end all war," or a war for "the four freedoms."

"It is a dirty little war that has fallen to the lot of the only power that is in a position to try to contain the expansion of Asian communism."

Its novelty lies in the fact that it is an 18th-century war fought with the technology of the 21st century, says the magazine.

It is an 18th-century war in the sense that the United States is fighting for a limited objective, and the secret search for a diplomatic settlement goes on at the same time as the military action.

And it is a 21st-century war in the sense that it is the first war fought on television.

"The American draftee lives and dies on television screens watched by his parents. There has never been anything quite like it."

When Britain was the possessor of global power in the 19th century, public opinion in England never minded very much about professional soldiers being killed. It is different when young Americans are being drafted to do the job and are being killed on camera.

It is only a short step, declares the magazine, from the obvious conclusion that all wars are hell to the belief that America should not be fighting this one.

Or else the reaction goes the other way. Because Americans are seen being killed, the argument is strengthened for doing anything possible to destroy the enemy before more Americans die.

Even so, President Johnson would have fewer critics if he had done a better job of explaining the war to the American people, thinks The Economist.

The President "talks about Vietnam in a traditional, semireligious language of absolute right and wrong that dates from an earlier period of American policy. Against this, the images of war on television are a powerful opposition that can lead people either to pacifism or to an increased bellicosity."

The magazine concludes, with British understatement, that unless the President can find his own way of describing, in simple language, the aim of American policy in the Far East, "the result will not be a victory for democratic methods of conducting government, or for his attempt to use global power with a mixture of firmness and moderation."

Perhaps we have become so bogged down in the jungles and paddy fields of Vietnam that we have lost sight of the over-all terrain, and the more bogged down we get, the less clearly we see.

ALMOST, MAYBE

A fellow who has always regarded himself as just an average guy doesn't now.

His whole concept of himself has changed faster than you could shake his hand and say, "Congratulations!"

Does the average man get a letter telling him that he and his wife have been chosen to receive TWO Lucky Number Checks (and did those caps look impressive!) in a big $150,000 national sweepstakes?

And does he get on the same day a lucky card from his friendly service station informing him he has just won 17 cents in a big drawing dedicated to the brand of gasoline he uses.

Now, 17 cents may not sound so big to people who have won prizes. But it did to this man. He's never won ANYTHING!

And the Lucky Number Checks were for $3,500 each! He almost fainted when he saw them peeping at him through the window in the envelope.

There was, however, a small condition attached to this sudden wealth. The checks, it developed, were no good unless Lucky Numbers drawn by the sweepstakes operators matched the Lucky Numbers of the Lucky Number Checks.

But with 17 cents already in the kitty, how can our man help but think it's in the cards for him to cop the larger prize?

Especially since he has already been congratulated in the letter on his good fortune in receiving the Lucky Number Checks?

You don't think they say that to EVERYBODY, do you?

WASHINGTON — The consuming American fear of being called square overtook a Pennsylvania Supreme Court Justice named Michael Musmanno the other day when he apologized to a House Judiciary subcommittee for becoming emotional about creeps who burn the American flag.

Musmanno actually seemed shame-faced as he assured the subcommittee "I have a day off today. I'll be calm and deliberate tomorrow."

I hope not. I trust that on many tomorrows to come citizens such as Justice Musmanno, and the plumber who lives down the street, will continue to be emotional about the flag-burners and the Stokely Carmichaels who shriek: "To hell with the laws." Since this is still a free country, especially for the flag-burners, I suggest that the Musmannos have as much right to be emotional as that curious collection of beatniks, peaceniks and paid civil rights malingerers known as the New Left.

OUTRAGED BY FLAG BURNINGS — Musmanno was testifying at a subcommittee hearing studying more than 50 bills to provide a Federal law imposing heavy penalties for mutilation of the flag. At present, the flag is protected only by inadequate state laws which invoke a gentle slap on the wrist for violations, but Capitol Hill has been lashed into action by the bales of mail received from constituents outraged by the wave of flag burnings.

In contrast, most of the Federal bills proposed would make mutilation of the flag punishable by one to five years in prison and up to a $10,000 fine. If it seems strange that there should have been no Federal law until now, the explanation seems to be that hitherto the country has been happily free of neurotic jerks who think flag-burning is fun.

SYMBOLISM OF THE FLAG — These jerks, most of whom would be earning their living in salt mines in some Communist or Fascist paradise, advance the preposterous argument that flag-burning is a form of meaningful dissent. This is like saying that tossing a Molotov cocktail through a White House window is merely an exercise in freedom of speech. It is like suggesting that it is okay to sabotage a battleship if the saboteur can prove he's a pacifist.

In effect, the flag represents not only the dignity and sovereignty of the United States but that sanctity of its laws which is employed as a shield by the flag-burners and the street rioters. The point can be made, and hereby is, that in burning the flag a citizen rejects the First Amendment and every other protective provision in the Constitution because the burner is expressing contempt for the Constitution's symbol.

DANGER OF DISORDER — If the viewpoint seems outlandishly square, Musmanno also submitted a very practical reason for protecting the flag. Flag burning, he noted, "incites disorder and tumult," which is still a crime. If burning the flag causes a riot in which people *are killed and injured, the onus is on the flag-*burner, not the public.

In this one, however, I reject the premise that Americans are under some kind of adjuration to keep their cool. This is, after all, their country, and they can hardly be blamed if flag-burnings stir up their glandular juices. So far as I know, no one has accused the burners of being square, but merely in bad taste. Musmanno called them "ungrateful wretches." This is true, but it is beside the point, which is that there should be a limit to expressions of ingratitude.

EAST-WEST TRADE

In a major foreign policy address last October, President Johnson said that the United States was prepared to expand trade with Communist Europe with a view to shaping "an entirely new political environment" there. Thus, American manufacturers have been urged to take part in a two-week-long exhibition of food processing equipment in Moscow starting Tuesday, May 16. The federal government will pay about $100,000 and participating companies about $80,000 of the cost of renting and maintaining exhibition space.

Indications are that Congress is not as enthusiastic as the President about expanding East-West trade. The House Banking and Currency Committee narrowly defeated, May 4, a Republican attempt to prevent the United States from helping to finance an automobile plant in the Soviet Union. By a vote of 18 to 15, the committee turned down an amendment offered by Rep. Paul A. Fino (R-N.Y.) that would have prohibited the Export-Import Bank from taking part in the deal.

Fino's amendment, offered on a bill to extend the life and financing resources of the bank, would have barred the bank from financing exports to any country engaged in hostilities with the United States or to any government supplying a country engaged in hostilities with the United States. Because of the Vietnam war, that would rule out virtually all Communist countries.

Substantial opportunities for trade with Communist countries do exist, although it takes patience to exploit them. Julian L. Hoffman, vice president of the industrial machinery division of Industrial Raw Materials Corp., negotiated for five years before he persuaded the Russians to buy machinery for making dehydrated potatoes.

Sometimes it takes even longer to convince some persons in the United States it's not a bad idea.—Idaho State Journal.

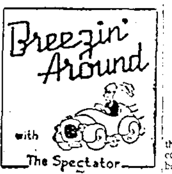
THE FIGURE IS MORE THAN AMPLE

There was photographic evidence the last weekend that Miss Mirta Teresita Massa of Buenos Aires has reached a state of physical perfection in only 19 years, but we gather from the words that accompanied the picture that she apparently has quite a way to go yet before she attains the same degree of moxie when it comes to money. Miss Massa, a dark-haired model, was chosen Miss International Beauty at Long Beach, Calif.

She won the $10,000 first-place prize. Before the contest, Miss Massa, an only child "who hopes to become an actress," said she would travel around the world to buy antiques if she won, and added: "I also want to buy a house for my parents and give them every comfort. I shall also buy a cruiser."

It probably would soften an eventual awakening if someone would explain to the young Latin beauty that $10,000, although a lot of money, may not quite stretch over a trip around the world, the purchase of antiques, a home plus furnishings, and a cruiser. Apparently, she hasn't priced antiques lately.

Yet, we suspect that her $10,000 will go farther than would ours, since there is a possibility she will get preferential treatment from some salesmen. After all, it wouldn't be the first time salesmen stumbled over each other in their rush to help some 120-pound, 35½-24-35½ female browser while ignoring the no-nonsense shopping aims of a 36-40-40 male customer. — Lewiston Tribune.



A GOOD SALE

Seems as though Paul Reynolds was doing a good turn by selling peanut brittle for the Twin Falls Kiwanis Club. The yearly candy sale returns are used by Kiwanis members in an extensive youth program.

But the peanut brittle sale is only half of the story. The best part was never told but Mr. Spectator heard it on the side just yesterday.

Paul knocked on the door of this particular house and the man of the house invited him in while he secured a $1 bill to pay for the box of candy. While all were standing there—Paul, the man and his wife, things happened.

A little girl had a bottle in her hand which she had picked up at some point. She put it to her lips and swallowed what was in it.

The contents were aspirin and the mother and father were beside themselves. But our friend Paul, being well trained in the manly art of first aid, wasted no time.

He picked the little gal up, held her over the sink, put his finger into her mouth and caused her to throw up. Out come the aspirin.

He put her down, collected the $1 for the candy sale, said thanks and left. The parents said thanks, too.

But to Paul it apparently was all in a day's work.

Washington Viewpoint

BY BRUCE BIOSSAT

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Since the New Left says it thinks communism is "square," it may be more fitting to call the movement "the revolt of the non-democrats."

Whatever confusion may surround the many factions and diverse strands of thought which make up the New Left, it is by now abundantly plain that its members are not committed, either by attitude or action, to the democratic process as we know it.

Studying their utterances and their behavior, one can conclude only that they seek to disrupt that process — in the name of freedom, of higher law, of morality, of revolutionary goals determined by them from day to day.

They say they detest violence in Vietnam, though their abhorrence seems painfully selective —limited largely to what Americans do.

Realistic politics is clearly be*yond them. What they call "con*frontation politics," a brutal, nose-to-nose meeting with government and other establishment leaders they despise, is actually a politics of revenge.

Barren of genuine power, caught with no cogent argument, the activists of the New Left suffer deep agonies of frustration.

These agonies express themselves in emotional screeches and in a swelling desire to punish their adversaries — verbally and even physically. The blunt truth is that public figures who happen to disagree with them are today not altogether safe in their person, except with extreme protection.

They are endangered because New Lefters and other non-democrats are punishers, above all. They are not content with making argument. Bound to lose, because they are at the fringe of society, they want to hurt.

So, they revel in the choices they give themselves — rush the stage, rock a car, jostle a gov*ernor, disrupt a hearing.* You name it.

The arrogance of youth is time-tested. What is new today, aside from the far greater volume by numbers, is that it does not end in mere assertive argument. It seeks triumph by any means that can be devised. It sees law not as a shield but as an encumbrance.

In the celebrated play, "a Man for All Seasons," playwright Robert Bolt has England's Sir Thomas More answer the potentially destructive arrogance of his son-in-law to be:

"This country's planted thick with laws from coast to coast — man's laws, not God's — and if you cut them down — and you're just the man to do it — d'you really think you could stand upright in the winds that would blow then?"

Dazzled by their chosen role as "revolutionaries," the New Leftists are inviting the winds with no real thought to the consequences to themselves or their society.

Across the nation, the extreme non-democrats may number no more than a quarter of a million. Yet television, parading their transgressions, has given them a status in the public eye far beyond their numbers or their competence.

That is not the worst of it. Their contempt for society's legitimate restraints, expressed in law and custom, is a contagion.

Countless otherwise more moderate young people, hearing the feverish cry that the frustrated may smash society if it fails to do their bidding quickly, have taken up the call in full or in part.

Some older Americans, including a few senators who ought to know better, have misread the words and actions of the New Left's cruel young wreck*ing crew* as if they were a proper element in youth's normal rebellion in a troubled time.

There lies the main peril. Extremists are always with us. They are a major menace only when their ideas and strategies begin to captivate sizable portions of the great center where a free society lives and gets things done.

Childs Views Today's Issues

By MARQUIS CHILDS

WASHINGTON — As man and as symbol Martin Luther King Jr. is the center of a power struggle extending far beyond the deep divisions in the civil rights movement. At stake is no less than the shape of the anti-Vietnam protest movement—roit and blood in the streets or orderly dissent.

The decision King finally makes can shift the balance in the presidential politics of 1968. The intense debate that went on not long ago throws a revealing light on how much turns on the outcome of this stuggle.

At the end of the debate King announced that he would not be a peace candidate for President next year as had been widely reported.

It was a momentary victory for the moderates in the civil rights movement, Joseph L. Rauh Jr., Roy Wilkins and others opposing the all-out defiance of the Black Power leaders.

If you run on a third-party peace ticket you will elect Richard Nixon President of the United States, Rauh told King. That will be the end result of your crusade for equal justice for the Negro. This was, needless to say, a sobering thought.

No one close to the debate believes, however, that King's decision was final. He is under strong continuing pressure to head a third-party ticket on a peace platform with Dr. Benjamin Spock as the vice-presidential candidate. Black Power lead*ers Stokely Carmichael*, Floyd McKissick and their followers tell him at every opportunity that it is his duty to give the American people a choice and not an echo.

This is heady wine. Adulators insist that he and he alone can show the way to peace in Vietnam. At the very least, they argue, he can bring about the defeat of Lyndon Johnson for a second full term.

The last is the logic of the position of Rauh and the moderates. If the Republicans see that King means to head a leftist peace ticket they will be convinced they can win with Nixon who is the candidate of the hard-core pros in the party.

And in a climate heated by fierce dissension, as the war continues to escalate, King would in all probability take enough votes in the big-city states to put the Johnson ticket in grave jeopardy. He would get a much bigger turnout than did Henry Wallace in 1948 running on a left-wing, anti-cold-war ticket.

In the complex struggle is an element often discussed in private but never mentioned in public. This is a rumored FBI report on King's private life derived from an electronic device placed in a hotel room the FBI has denied the existence of any such report. Asked several times by reporters, King says he has never heard of it.

In December, 1964, J. Edgar Hoover, the FBI chief, denounced King as "the most notorious liar in the country." Shortly afterward King called at FBI headquarters to meet Hoover. He had little to say when he came out and the report circulated that he had been confronted with the hotel-room recording. King denied that anything like this had happened.

Yet, like an uneasy ghost, the report will not die. On the day that King and Spock were to lead the massive anti-war demonstration in New York last month the President let it be known at his Texas ranch that he was reading an FBI report on "Anti-War Activity." Among King's friends and followers were those convinced this was aimed at the head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

In recent weeks King has been following a moderate line. At *Louisville a demonstration prom*ising to disrupt the Kentucky Derby was called off after one of King's followers announced that an "urgent telephone call" necessitated cancelling the planned march. Although it was denied that the call was threatening, again the rumor of pressure from Washington circulated.

King himself says there were two good reasons for stopping the demonstration. One was the danger of a riot and the other was that the demonstrators would have been accused of disruption just for the sake of disruption and the cause of open housing in Louisville would have suffered. In an ad in the New York Times on Sunday King joined with moderates calling for "a national citizens' signature campaign for new initiatives to end the war in Viet*nam." The signers covered a* broad range of religious and civic leaders.

That the Buddha-like figure of this once-obscure Negro minister with the voice that is a cur*ious monotone should be cast up* in the crucible of the civil rights movement to a balance of power role is a strange vagary of a strange time. Whichever road he takes the histroy books will have a lot to say about Martin Luther King.

Interpreting The News

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — For years now the issues in presidential elections have been individuals and not parties. It will be that way again unless the Republicans can make a case for themselves before the 1968 election.

The differences between the parties are getting blurred as the Republicans, finally looking at the clock, emerge from their intense conservatism of Franklin D. Roosevelt's time, even though they suffered a temporary relapse in 1964.

But they were already out of date in the New Deal days. And, as they moved closer to the Democratic view, which has been a slow jog forward, the issues between them and the Democrats diminished.

This has forced voters to choose more between men than parties.

In 1948, although the Republicans tried to ram him against the wall with their sneers, jeers and criticism, President Harry S. Truman through courage and aggressiveness beat New York's Gov. Thomas E. Dewey almost single-handedly.

By 1952 the country was sick of the mud-slinging, hatreds, divisions and uneasiness created by Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy and wanted political and mental peace. If the Republicans had chosen McCarthy as their candidate, or someone like him, there would have been a real issue in the campaign. But they didn't.

Who could better restore sanity than Dwight D. Eisenhower? Who could better settle the Korean War? His rival, Adlai E. Stevenson, compared with him, was an untried, political no*body. Stevenson never had a* chance.

This was pretty much the same story in 1956 when Eisenhower beat Stevenson again except that by then McCarthy had been silenced and the Korean War was over. And the nation, which had recaptured its sanity, was doing all right. Why change?

As for the parties—there was no real issue between them. They hadn't distinguished themselves in Congress although each had controlled it for two years in Eisenhower's first term.

And the 1960 race, again without real political issues, was a personality contest between Sen. John F. Kennedy and Vice President Richard M. Nixon. Kennedy won by a whisker.

In 1964 Sen. Barry Goldwater made himself the issue in his campaign against President Johnson. He represented a return to the 19th century. His party went down with him.

In the years between the 1960 and 1964 contests the parties themselves were only so-so although the Democrats ran Congress. So the big issue three years ago was the choice between Johnson and Goldwater.

At this moment the would-be Republican candidates aren't saying much that means much. And their party, if it has hopes of raising some domestic issue against Johnson in 1968, has kept it out of sight.

The Vietnamese war will certainly be an issue, in one way or another, unless by election time next year it is over. But the Republicans are already divided among themselves on that.

Congress, still under the Democrats, made a brilliant record in 1965. But Johnson can hardly hope to rest on the 1965 performance in the 1968 campaign.

The Doctor Says

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M. D.

Q — Would there be any harmful effects from a large amount of opaque dye being left in the spinal canal after a myelogram? Would it cause headache, cramping and numbness of the legs and back?

A — Much of the opaque dye used to make X-ray studies of the spinal canal is always left behind. It is harmless and will not cause any of the symptoms you mentioned. Their cause is either worry about the dye or something you have not mentioned in your letter.

Q — I have a severe backache and curvature of the spine. Can the curvature be corrected? I am 54 years old and have worn a brace on my back for three months but it hasn't helped. My doctor wants to operate. What do you advise? Will the curvature cause arthritis?

A — Spinal curvature may be lateral (S-shaped), swayback or humpback and may vary widely in severity. Mild degrees require no treatment. It can be corrected in childhood by means of exercises and a brace or body cast but if not corrected before growth is complete such treatment is of little use.

It would not cause arthritis but arthritis may occur as an added feature. If you have had the curvature all your life, it is not the cause of your backache. Slipped disk is the commonest cause of backache in adults. Arthritis and sprains are runners up. Of these causes only a slipped disk would require surgery and for this condition an operation is highly recommended.

Q — A friend has been afflicted with Marie - Strumpell disease for 30 years. Can anything be done for this condition?

A — Ankylosing spondylitis or Marie - Strumpell disease is a chronic arthritis of the spine. It begins with a gradual stiffening of the back. Unless steps are taken to prevent deformity, the victim becomes unable to straighten up. As with any chronic disease, skillful treatment is required for the best results. Antirheumatic drugs are any important part of the management. Exercises to strengthen the back, even though they cause pain, are essential. Hot applications help to relieve pain and stiffness. Braces help to keep the spine straight and relieve muscle spasms. Regular rest periods throughout the day are also helpful. As a last resort a spinal fusion operation may be necessary to correct the deformity. —

Freedom Is Theme For Exercises

HANSEN — Taking his cue from the senior class motto, "Born Free, Remain Free," The Rev. Howard Larsen, Kimberly Christian Church, was the guest speaker at the Baccalaureate exercises held Sunday evening in the school gymnasium.

He reminded seniors they must hold a deep sense of gratitude for the fact they were born free, not free because of their own efforts but because of many before them. He stated the Bible was responsible for the freedom policies.

To remain free is a tall order, he stated, and it requires honor and integrity to remain free. "You must be active in the things of the world, not in an untamed manner but harnessed for good. Religion is a line of magnetic force, a faith in God. Jesus is still the center of our universe, nothing has had the effect on our lives that He has," Rev. Larsen declared.

The seniors, the girls in white and the boys in green caps and gowns, marched in to the school band music, the processional, Hymn of Freedom. Bishop E. D. Crockett gave the invocation.

The chorus sang two numbers. Rev. Elmer Richardson, Assembly of God, Hansen, gave the benediction.

The graduating class of the eighth grade also was included in the baccalaureate address. Richard Youree is the director of music.

Former Medic Testifies In Army Trial

By AL LANIER

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) — A former Special Forces medic testified today that Army Capt. Howard B. Levy once compared Green Beret troopers to Nazi SS soldiers and President Johnson to Adolf Hitler.

Richard W. Gillum, now a civilian bacteriologist in Danville, Ill., told a general court-martial panel Levy, a dermatologist, made the statement last year during heated discussions they had over U.S. involvement in the Dominican Republic and in Vietnam. He said the discussion occurred at the Ft. Jackson, S.C., base hospital.

Levy, 30, of Brooklyn, N.Y., is charged with refusing to teach Special Forces medics dermatology and with making disloyal statements designed to persuade soldiers not to serve in Vietnam. He could be sentenced a maximum of 11 years in prison, if convicted.

Gillum said Levy sought to have him read pamphlets which he "got the impression" were on the attorney general's subversive list. But Col. Earl V. Brown, the law officer, told Gillum he had never heard of such a list.

Charles Morgan, the defense attorney assigned to the case by the American Civil Liberties Union, drew from Gillum the admission that as a Green Beret medic he would carry a weapon as well as a medical aid kit. The defense has concentrated on trying to prove that is one of the reasons Levy refused to train Special Forces medics.

Tariff Talks Fill Some Details Of Kennedy's Design For Partnership

By CARL HARTMAN

GENEVA (AP) The successful conclusion Monday night of the long Geneva tariff talks has filled in some of the details of President Kennedy's grand design for a partnership between America and Europe.

Walter Hallstein, chief executive of the European Common Market, had predicted: "Only when it is united will Europe be strong enough to assume the rights and obligations of a full and equal partner and so determine its own destiny. The Kennedy Round is the first example of this policy in practice. With these negotiations the economic dialogue of the continents has been opened."

The picture will not emerge exactly as President Kennedy saw it. But after five years of negotiations the Kennedy Round has done a good deal of what it set out to do.

The United States and the Common Market have emerged as the world's two great trading units. What they decide determines the commercial policy of the non-Communist world.

The Common Market has spoken successfully for all six member countries: President Charles de Gaulle's France, West Germany, Italy, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

While the agreed tariff cuts will average 33 to 35 per cent in some 80 nations, many tariffs will be cut 50 per cent over a period of five years.

A $5,000 Italian sports car now pays $325 duty in the United States. Beginning the first of next year, $32.50 will be knocked off.

A $2,500 American car which now pays a tariff of $550 in Western Europe will only have to pay $440 beginning July 1, 1968.

Whether the savings will be passed on to the purchaser is another question.

Few of the 6,300 items in the U.S. tariff book are sold directly to consumers. All pass through the hands of dealers, wholesale and retail.

If past experience is any guide, these businessmen will hang on to most of the savings.

Experience may not be the perfect guide. The tariff cuts are expected to average 33 to 35 per cent, which is five or six times more than the last tariff-cutting exercise, the Dillon Round of 1960. This time the savings may be more perceptible.

Economists say tariff cuts stimulate business, in facilitating a free flow of trade.

Betwetn 1948 and 1966 world trade increased from $53.3 billion to $180 billion. Five tariff cuts in that period may have had something to do with the increase.

Foreign exporters will certainly see new opportunities to sell their goods in America, goods that would not have been able to compete before the tariff cuts. Likewise American producers should find new opportunities in foreign markets, for tariff cutting is a two-way street.

Businessmen all over the world ought to be stimulated to improve their products and bring down prices to meet the new competition, but prices are rising so fast that the process may only slow down the natural increase.

Fulbright Gets Cards From Mothers

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., has received thousands of Mothers Day cards from mothers who want peace in the world.

"For my Mothers Day gift this year, I don't want candy or flowers," the cards said. "I want an end to killing. We who have given life must be dedicated to preserving it. Please talk peace."

Fulbright, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committe, is an outspoken critic of the Vietnam war.

His office estimated Monday he received 10,000 to 12,000 cards, apparently from members of a group called "Another Mother for Peace," based in Los Angeles.

HOSPITAL TOURED

POCATELLO (AP) — An estimated 3,500 visitors toured the new St. Anthony Hospital during open house Sunday.

Gordon Thurmond, associate administrator, said "We are in the process of moving in today."

If expected state clearance is granted, patients will be moved into the $1.9 million building on Wednesday.

MAN BOUND OVER

LEWISTON, Idaho (AP) — Wilfred R. Eldred, 22, Lewiston, was arraigned in justice court Monday on a charge of involuntary manslaughter and was bound over to 10th District Court.

Acting Justice Frank V. Barton set no date for a preliminary hearing on the charge. Eldred was released on $2,500 bond.

The charge stemmed from an accident Saturday in which Mrs. Bessie C. Click, 73, Lewiston, was killed when she was struck by a speeding car while she was walking across a street near her residence. Police said the car which struck her failed to stop.

SCALDED TO DEATH

MOUNTAIN HOME, Idaho (AP) — A 21-month old girl was dead on arrival at a Mountain Home hospital Monday. Elmore County Coroner Art Smith said she was accidentally scalded to death.

Smith said Michelle Murphy apparently turned a hot water tap on herself.

He said the mother, Mrs. Clara Williams of Mountain Home, told him she was bathing the toddler in the sink and had left her alone briefly.

IDAHO GETS BID

BOISE (AP) — The federal government has handed Idaho a $370,000 bill for firefighting services on state forest lands during last year.

And Idaho Land Commissioner Gordon Trombley said Monday no one is sure what to do with it. He said the state has neither confirmed nor denied the bill's validity.

He and Secretary of State Pete T. Cenarrusa met with U.S. Forest Service and Bureau of Land Management representative on the bill.

Squirrels, Breakins Are Spring Signs

HAILEY — Among the sure signs of spring in the Wood River Valley are target shooting at squirrels and reports of vandalism in summer homes over the winter.

Sheriff Orville Drexler has been busy the past week investigating reports of evidence left by uninvited guests in cabins throughout the mountains. He has also received several complaints of bullets meant for squirrels coming uncomfortably close to people.

He reports when the Melvin McCreas, who now live in Dietrich, came to their summer home in Bellevue they found it had been broken into. The only things missing seemed to be a knife made out of a rail saw, and a paring knife.

Whoever broke in had methodically taken the screens from each of the four downstairs windows and laid them in the grass; then climbed a fireladder to reach an upstairs window, which was not locked.

The McCreas decided the screens had lain in the grass at least two weeks as the grass had turned yellow beneath them.

The Hot Springs Landing cafe was broken into, with apparently nothing taken. When Mrs. Dorothy Turvey came to open the cafe, after it had been closed all winter, she discovered someone had entered through a hole in the back of the building, by enlarging it over one former vandals had cut in a previous breakin, despite the fact it had been securely boarded up.

Then, there is the matter of "sort of keeping an eye" on a family that has taken up residence along Big Wood River in a gully a mile or so west of Stanton's Crossing.

Jerome Minister Addresses Class

RICHFIELD—Rev. John Garrabrandt gave the Richfield High School baccalaureate sermon Sunday afternoon at the school auditorium.

The Jerome Methodist minister spoke on "Responsibility, Rectitude and Respect." He was introduced by Supt. F. R. Briggs.

Bishop Jay Ward gave the invocation, Joy Alexander sang a solo, the high school chorus was directed by Mrs. L. T. Sanders in a number, and Rev. Ralph Cairns gave the benediction.

Cathie Flavel played the processional and recessional and served as piano accompanist. High school commencement will be at 8 p.m. Thursday.

DEMURRER FILED

LEWISTON, Idaho (AP) — Dean M. Barney, Lewiston, north Idaho representative of the Idaho Farm Bureau Federation, Monday filed a demurrer in justice court asking that charges against him of printing and distributing anonymous campaign material be dismissed. He contended that the complaint was vague and does not conform to the requirements of state law.

Barney was charged April 14 with printing and distributing the day before the general election last Nov. 7, handbills attacking the business judgment of Cecil A. Andrus, the Democratic candidate for governor.

CHURCH SUPPORTED

ST. MARIES (AP) — The Democratic Central Committee of Benewah County has adopted a resolution supporting Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, and urging Idahoans not to sign a petition for his recall.

Thomas G. Hodgon, chairman, said the group unanimously supported the resolution.

Hodgson said Democrats "regret" the identification of the (victory committee) chairman as associated with the city of St. Maries.

QUEEN CHOSEN

COEUR D' ALENE, Idaho (AP) — Miss Teresa Susedik, a short brunette, was crowned Miss Coeur d'Alene Monday night as this lake city's Forest Festival Week got into full swing.

Miss Smith won the title, which entitles her to enter either the Miss America of Miss USA contest, after talent and swim suit competition. For talent, she did a song and dance routine.

First runnerup was Miss Marie Tremblay. Second runnerup was Miss Linda Stockwell.

CHAIRMAN ELECTED

IDAHO FALLS, Idaho (AP) — Steel Barnett, an executive of Boise-Cascade Corp. at Boise, was elected permanent chairman of the new Idaho Atomic Energy Commission in a meeting here Monday night.

Barnett had been serving as temporary chairman until elections.

Donald MacKay, an Idaho Falls banker, was named vice chairman.

LITERATURE DISTRIBUTED

BOISE (AP) — More than a quarter of a million pieces of literature promoting Idaho have been distributed by the Idaho Department of Commerce and Development in the last two months, Secretary Louise Shadduck said Monday.

WEEK PROCLAIMED

BOISE (AP)—Idaho Gov. Don W. Samuelson has proclaimed this week as "National Public Works Week" in Idaho.

The chief executive urged Idaho residents to acquaint themselves with the problems involved in providing the public works facilities and services desired by the people."

FIRE CAUSE CITED

PARMA (AP) — Ignition of gasoline fumes by an oil heater has been cited as the cause of a weekend explosion and fire which killed a Parma boy and injured his mother.

Canyon County Sheriff Dale Haile said Monday his department has concluded that fumes from a gasoline can which was placed without four feet of an oil heater touched off the blast.

Killed in the fire was Mike Hurd, 2, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hurd. Mrs. Hurd was in critical condition with burns from the fire which destroyed her home Saturday.

She was to be taken to Salt Lake City today for special treatment. Mr. Hurd was in California at time of the accident.

Duck Lover

LONDON (AP) — Movie star Rod Taylor has been told by his landlord to get rid of Duck.

Duck is the name of Taylor's duck, which lives in with the Australian actor at his rented house in Orvington Square, Chelsea.

Taylor was livid over the landlord's order when he came home Monday night after a day spent filming at Elstee Studios.

"I thought this country was famous for its love of animals," he protested.

"Duck is absolutely marvelous and perfectly house trained. I want to stay here with the Duck, but if the landlord insists then we'll both leave."

Sears Store Executives Transferred

The transfer of two executives within the Sears, Roebuck and Co. organization was announced Monday by Daryl Ander, manager of the Twin Falls Sears store.

Mr. Ander said Glenn Romig, who has been credit sales manager of the Twin Falls store for the past four years, has been transferred to the Boise store as credit sales manager.

Mr. Romig, a memebr of the Presbyterian Church, has been graduated from the Oregon State College and started with the Sears organization 17 years ago in Portland, Ore. His family will move to Boise as soon as school is out. He is married and has four children.

Replacing Mr. Romig at the Twin Falls store is Peter Cobb, who was credit sales manager at San Luis Obispo, Calif. He has been with the Sears organization for the past five years, starting in Fresno, Calif.

Mr. Ander said the two transfers are effective immediately.

Marijuana Source Is Being Sought

POCATELLO (AP)—City detectives Tuesday were continuing their efforts to find the source of a bag of marijuana which led to the arrest Saturday of 23-year-old John Houston Wagnon.

Wagnon, 420 South Sixth, was arrested Saturday and charged with the illegal sale and possession of the narcotic drug. His arrest was made after an undercover man identified Wagnon as the man who had sold him a bag of marijuana Friday night.

The young man is free on $2,500 bond. He has been charged in the Court of Justice of the Peace R. Don Bistline, but has not yet indicated if he wants a preliminary hearing.

"We know this marijuana came from out of state," said chief of detectives Earl Boyce. "We're going to concentrate on trying to find who supplied it. We can't do much about apprehending others who may have purchased it. The only way we can act is if we catch someone with marijuana in their possession."

Boyce said there are federal laws against the sale and possession of marijuana, but Wag*non's case will remain under the* jurisdiction of state courts and laws. He said local officers will handle the investigation of the case.

Campaign

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — The "vrooom" is out with the Viking Riders II motorcycle club and the club has started a public relations campaign to improve its image.

Even the name has changed — it used to be Ghost Riders.

The drive to improve the image began when police cracked down on motorcyclists in general.

Viking Riders now pay $5 membership fees and $1 weekly dues. Ten cent fines are collected from every member who swears during a meeting.

Dollar fines are levied against riders who race *while wearing the club in*signia. A third violation means expulsion from the club.

Noise is out.

Even a factory-installed muffler is changed if it's too loud.

The police department determines how much noise is noisy.

Viking Riders donate blood.

Book Club Pays Big To Svetlana

NEW YORK (AP) — The Book-of-the-Month club has paid $235,000 for the right to distribute the memoirs of Svetlana Alliluyeva, the daughter of Joseph Stalin.

It is reportedly the largest sum ever paid by a book club in such a purchase.

Axel Rosin, the club president, said Monday the previous high was the $250,000 it paid for rights to William Manchester's "Death of a President."

Miss Alliluyeva's memoirs are scheduled to be published Oct. 16 by Harper & Row.

Dear Abby

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My husband spends every holiday — Easter, Thanksgiving, Christmas, etc., with his ex-wife and their three children. When I grumble because I and my two children by a former marriage are left alone, he says, "Why don't you get YOUR children's father to come and spend the holidays with you and HIS children the way I do?"

I want to be fair, Abby, but I also want to be treated fairly. Where do you think my husband's loyalties should lie?

ACHING HEART

DEAR ACHING: How old are his children? And how old are yours? A man who marries a woman with young children (under 10) should assume the role of a father to those children. And if he has young children of his own (and if their mother hasn't already replaced him with another "father") he should see them occasionally, too.

But a man who is seriously trying to make a second marriage work should concentrate on being a father to the children of his present wife. Running back and forth (usually out of a sense of guilt) confuses the kiddies and enbitters the wife.

DEAR ABBY: I feel that a 17-year-old girl should be allowed to shut her bedroom door if she chooses.

My mother and I live alone in a four-room house and I am not allowed to shut my bedroom door unless I am studying. My mother claims that I am "shutting her out."

Abby, I love my mother very much, and I am not "shutting her out." I just want a little privacy.

My mother is very fair about almost everything except this. Please print your answer. If you say I am wrong, I'll promise to do as you say with no more arguments. When I try to discuss it with my mother we both end up stretching our vocal cords. Thank you.

SEVENTEEN

DEAR SEVENTEEN: I think you should be allowed to shut your bedroom door whenever you wish.

DEAR ABBY: My problem is my father-in-law. He can't keep his creeping hands off me. I am 24 years old, happily married and am not particularly sexy-looking, and I in no way encourage his advances. No one would believe he is this kind of person. They would say he is only giving me "fatherly pats" but I know better.

I have a father of my own and he doesn't act this way. My father-in-law twists every remark to make it sound dirty and he tries to corner me to squeeze and kiss me. (Molesting is what it actually is!)

I don't want to cause a family fight, but I just hate being in this dirty old man's company. What can I do? He is 60, which is old enough to know better.

MOLESTED

DEAR MOLESTED: Your father-in-law is either a "dirty old man" or he could be sick. Give him fair warning that if he touches you again, you'll tell your husband. And if he does—tell your husband.

Troubled? Write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Rebekah Lodge Has Initiation

BUHL — Mrs. Lucile Brizee, Mrs. Otto Dolar and Mrs. L. D. Major were initiated into the Buhl Rebekah Lodge when it met recently at the Odd Fellows Hall.

The courtesy committee reported that gifts have been delivered to Gertrude Biswell, Gertrude Farlinger and Bessie Wilson. Thank you cards were read from the three women.

A letter was read from the assembly president confirming the nomination of Mrs. Adolph Machacek for district deputy president to complete the term of Mrs. W. D. Parks who resigned. Mrs. C. W. Moffett was elected to complete the term of financial secretary for Mrs. Parks.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Leland Hudson, Mrs. Luke Parnell, Mrs. Chester Partin and Mrs. Guy Ulrich.

Program For 4-H Members Is Flexible

SHOSHONE—There is a big difference in clothes that have the "handmade" rather than the "homemade" look," and it is the distinctive "handmade" look that 4-H girls can perfect when they make their own clothes, says 4-H clothing leaders here.

The national 4-H clothing program annually enrolls about three-quarter million girls from 9 to 19 years of age. Many mothers of today's members learned to sew when they were enrolled in this program, now in its 27th year.

What is so special about the program is the flexible outline, so that even a 9-year-old can learn to operate a sewing machine and make easy things like a poncho or head scarf. Then the 12-year-olds make skirts, blouses and straight line dresses.

Teen-age girls who stay with the project wind up making the most important clothes in their wardrobes, such as suits, coats, party dresses, sports attire and basic outfits for school.

But there is more to the clothing program than cutting out a garment and running it up on the machine, extension clothing specialists point out. The young seamstresses study design, color, fabrics and finishes. They learn to use time, energy and money wisely in planning and making their own clothes.

By participating in the clothing program over a period of years, the 4-H girl has an opportunity to have fine clothing in her wardrobe and to compete for valuable awards provided by the program sponsor, Coats and Clark, Inc.

This year six of the nation's most outstanding clothing members will receive $500 scholarships. Fifty-one from each state will win all-expense trips to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago. Several thousand will earn the county medal. The same awards are offered in Puerto Rico. All winners are named by the Cooperative Extension Service.

Voters Asked If They Want Convention

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Pennsylvania voters were asked again today if they wanted to call a convention to revise their 94-year-old state constitution. Six times in the past they have turned down similar proposals.

The constitutional convention question was the first test at the polls for Gov. Raymond P. Shafer, a Republican, since he was elected last November. Shafer has backed the constitutional convention question with a vigorous campaign.

Another highlight of the primary was the scrap in Philadelphia for control of the Democratic party organization.

Previous opponents of constitutional revision claimed that changes would open the door to a state income tax.

Shafer, often flanked by former Govs. George M. Leader, a Democrat, and William W. Scranton, a Republican, carried one main message to the voters — no income tax in a revised constitution.

Red Plot For Manila Meet Is Revealed

MANILA (AP)—President Johnson and the other government leaders at the seven-nation Manila summit conference on Vietnam last October were kept under "constant surveillance" because of a Communist assassination plot that was uncovered shortly before the meeting, a Philippine presidential spokesman said today.

The spokesman was commenting on a report in Look magazine quoting President Ferdinand E. Marcos as saying that he, President Johnson and South Vietnamese Premier Nguyen Cao Ky were the chief targets of the Communists.

In earlier comments to newsmen here regarding the plot, Marcos said several arrests were made at the time. He did not elaborate, and his spokesman today said no further details were available on the Red plan or the military intelligence action that broke it up.

New National Rail Strike Threatened

By NEIL GILBRIDE
AP Labor Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new nationwide railroad strike threat by conductors and brakemen was reported today while Congress resumed hearings on President Johnson's efforts to head off a walkout by six railroad shop unions.

The independent Order of Railway Conductors and Brakemen has advised railroad negotiators that some 20,000 of its members have authorized a strike for June 2, it was learned.

President Johnson could appoint an emergency board under the Railway Labor Act to stave off the new strike threat for 60 days, but the development seemed likely to complicate congressional action on the special law he seeks to prevent a strike by the shop unions.

Neither the union nor the railroads announced the new strike threat, but it was confirmed by government sources.

The conductors' and brakemen's dispute, like that of the shopcraft unions, involves 90 per cent of the nation's major railroads and a strike would virtually paralyze the industry.

Losers

NEW YORK (AP) — Two teen-agers who attempted to hold up a man walking across the Brooklyn Bridge are top candidates for Losers of the Week.

Police said Louis Megron, 17, of Brooklyn and a 14-year-old companion approached the man Monday and one of them snapped: "Hand over your money."

The victim reached into his pocket but instead of a wallet pulled our a .38-caliber revolver and a badge identifying him as police Deputy Inspector Jules Sachson, a confidential investigator.

Shoshone Church Fetes Teachers

SHOSHONE — A dinner was given Sunday evening in the Methodist Church fellowship hall in appreciation of the church school teachers. Their husbands and wives were guests.

The dinner was sponsored by the Church Commission on Education. Table games were played later in the evening.

Special guests were Clarence Tanaka, Rev. and Mrs. Ralph Cairns, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Pierson, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Kerner, Mrs. Charles Borden and Mrs. Mary Pethisk.

Administration Gears Money For Long War Involvement

By JOSEPH R. COYNE

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Johnson administration gradually is gearing its money operations—including the national debt—for a Vietnam war lasting at least as long as the U.S. involvement in World War II.

A request Monday to Congress for a permanent debt ceiling of $365 billion to carry the government through June 30, 1969, was one of several recent moves in that direction.

They also include President Johnson's request for a six per cent income tax surtax, sales of new "freedom share" savings bonds pegged directly to the length of the war and a voluntary program to stem the flow of investment dollars overseas.

World War II fighting began for the United States Dec. 7, 1941, and ended with Japan's surrender Aug. 14, 1945.

The U.S. troop buildup in Vietnam reached major scale in mid-1965 and administration fiscal planning now runs through June 30, 1969.

The implication for the national debt was clear in Fowler's appearance Monday before the House Ways and Means Committee.

"I am here to talk about financing a war. It is a costly war and it must be financed in a manner consistent with preserving sound, balanced and fruitful economic growth at home," he said.

In recommending a permanent debt ceiling of $365 billion, Fowler said World War II provided a precedent for large debt limit increases to insure the ceiling "would not be a constraint on necessary wartime finance."

The present temporary ceiling of $336 billion will drop to $285 billion, the current permanent level, on July 1 unless Congress acts. The actual debt as of May 10—the latest date for which a figure is available—was $325.4 billion.

In proposing the surtax, Johnson pegged its length at either two years—which would carry it to June 30, 1969—or as long as the war lasted.

The "freedom shares" went on sale May 1 to persons buying Series E bonds on the payroll savings or bond-a-month plans. They pay 4.74 per cent interest when held to maturity of 4½ years.

Fowler also told the committee the administrative budget deficit for both this fiscal year and next is now estimated at $11 billion—and that assumes Congress approves the surtax.

But Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., suggested a $365-billion ceiling might be insufficient because of uncertainties like the surtax in the administration's projection. Failure of Congress to act on a variety of requests, he said, might add another $12.5 billion to the debt.

Chichester Has Slow Sailing

LONDON (AP) — Sir Francis Chichester reports that he has just finished the slowest week of his round-the-world solo voyage.

The International Wool Secretariat, one of Chichester's sponsors, said today that he reported by radio: "I seem to have run out of wind. I sailed 509 miles compared with 1,244 the previous week."

Chichester, 65, had hoped to reach Plymouth May 20 in his 53-foot ketch Gipsy Moth IV. He is near the Azores, about 2,000 miles from his destination.

Civil Rights May Cause War In U. S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Negro teacher says the civil rights struggle may reap so much discontent and loss of faith that it eventually will be reduced to a civil war between whites and Negroes.

"If it's comforting to you, it's going to be quite a while off yet — though not so far off as to be outside of our life span," said Dr. Nathan Hare, assistant professor of sociology at Howard University in Washington.

In a copyrighted interview with U.S. News & World Report, Hare, 33, also predicted that Stokely Carmichael would be the Negro leader "for the near future, at least."

Carmichael became the leading advocate of black power while chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, a post he left last week. He was a student of Hare's at Howard University.

EFFECTS STUDIED

WASHINGTON (AP) — Government scientists will investigate whether carbon-monoxide fumes from the cars and trucks on crowded highways affect expectant mothers, survival of babies and birth weights.

Burley, Rupert Hold Joint BPW Installation Banquet

BURLEY—New officers of the Burley and Rupert Business and Professional Women's Club were installed during a joint dinner meeting at Nelson's Cafe of the two clubs.

Mrs. W. Gay Jones, immediate past president of the Burley BPW Club, was installing officer, using the flower ceremony.

New officers of the Burley Club are Mrs. Ina Judd (by proxy), president; Mrs. Emily Steelman, vice president; Mrs. Sarah Harrison, secretary, and Mrs. Kenneth Grimsman, treasurer.

New officers installed for the Rupert Club were Mrs. Harold Greene, president; Mrs. Jane Klebe, first vice president; Mrs. Shirley Cox (by proxy), second vice president; Mrs. Iva Schupbach (by proxy), secretary, and Mrs. Lena Cesari, treasurer.

Information on the state convention, June 15-17 at Idaho Falls, was read by Mrs. Harrison. Delegates elected to attend the convention were Mrs. Vera Williams and Mrs. Jones. Alternates selected were Mrs. Emma Glenn and Mrs. Georgia Bedell.

The club president Mrs. Judd and Mrs. Grimsman, district director, also will attend as voting delegates.

A report was given on the recent South Central District meeting held at Twin Falls attended by 77 women representing Buhl, Gooding, Jerome, Sun Valley, Rupert, Burley and Twin Falls. Newly elected officers installed during the district meeting included Mrs. Grimsman, district director; Mrs. Jones, secretary treasurer, both Burley. Mrs. Jessie Standlee, Jerome, first vice director; Mrs. Roberta McKerchner, Hailey, second vice director.

*Mrs. Grimsman reported at*tending the spring breakfast meeting of the Twin Falls Club where she installed new officers. Their new recording secretary is Mrs. Marth Carson, a former Burley Club member. Also attending the breakfast were Mrs. Steelman and Mrs. Cindy Taylor, both Burley.

The next dinner meeting of the Burley Club will be held June 6 at Nelson's Cafe. Final preparations will be made for attending the state convention. Delegates will be instructed on voting for state club bylaw changes, and each club has been asked to bring their club flag, scrapbook, and yearbook for display.

Guests included Mrs. Clifford Sutton, Declo; Mrs. Arthur Walker and Mrs. Cindy Taylor, *both Burley; Mrs. Evelyn Hin*richs, Mrs. Harold Greene, Mrs. Ruby Gilmore, Mrs. Jane Klebe, Mrs. Lena Cesari, Mrs. Grace King, Mrs. Alfred Zoerb and Mrs. Kate Patterson, all Rupert.

Opponent Denounced By Paper

TOKYO (AP) —For the first time the official Communist Chinese press has denounced by name an opponent of Mao Tse-tung, indicating that the power struggle in Peking was headed for a climax.

A broadcast by Radio Peking today named Peng Chen, fallen Politburo member and mayor of Peking, heretofore attacked only by Red Guard wall newspapers, as an opponent of "Mao Tse-tung's thinking."

Exactly a year after it was drawn up in the secrecy of a Central Committee meeting, a note of May 16, 1966 was made public by the official radio denouncing the fallen Peking mayor.

Under the rules issued last August for the current purge, called the "great proletarian cultural revolution," the official press was forbidden to denounce any leader by name without clearance from top political bodies.

Detour To Be Changed On Interstate

District Highway Engineer B. E. Sessions, Shoshone, has announced plans by the Idaho Department of Highways for a revised detour on Interstate Highway 80-N in the vicinity of Greenwood Store in Jerome County.

He said, effective May 18, traffic will detour from Interstate 80-N onto existing State Highway 25 by utilizing the Ridgeway Road and the Kasota Road Interchanges. This will be necessary, Mr. Sessions said, to *permit construction of the In*terstate between Greenwood and the Minidoka County Line.

Some minor traffic interferences will be necessary while the detour is in operation, he added. Motorists, the engineer said, are urged to watch for signing on the detour and to abide by temporary restrictions.

Rep. Hansen Is Speaker At Castleford

CASTLEFORD—Cong. George Hansen told 28 high school graduates during commencement Monday night at Castleford that the "coming years will present the greatest challenge and offer the greatest rewards to young people in the history of the United States."

The Republican representative urged the graduating seniors to make the "best possible use of whatever future education they might have." He stressed that it will not only be the young who will be the leaders of tomorrow, but also the well educated.

Referring to this era as the era of the young, Cong. Hansen, said, "in 1960 the average age of our citizens was 33—next year it will be 25 and in about 10 years, 60 per cent of our population will be under 35."

He said the young leaders of tomorrow will be looking for more than a home in the suburbs and two cars in the garage.

"Many of them," he said, "will want to save the world and while they may have valid criticisms of the way my generation is handling things, they should not refute the past, for there can be no future without that past on which our American way of life is based."

Young people, he noted, should not accept the theory that the best way to build a better world is by tearing down every institution now in it. They should recall the terrible times of war and depression and take pride that their ancestors had enough confidence and resilience to move ahead.

"A thousand years from now," he concluded, "civilization may believe that freedom passed through its most critical test in the last third of the 20th century. If so, the opportunities for success, or more seriously, the ultimate responsibility for failure, rests with today's young people who will guide us through these critical years."

Reservoir Will Fill, Report Says

BURLEY—The River Control report released by Glenn Simmons Tuesday reports the American Falls Reservoir will fill about May 20.

Releases from Palisades Reservoir to make space for snow melting have already started and with American Falls full, some spill will occur at Milner Dam, he notes.

Recent weeks of cool wet weather have held irrigation demands to a below average figure for this date, causing Milner spill to take place sooner than expected.

Mr. Simmons also noted that there is better than average water content in the snow in the headwater area of the watersheds for this date.

During April control water in the watersheds was low this year, whereas in a normal year the water content of the snow would decline and runoff would have started. The river level this year will hold up well with storage water being used for irrigation later in the season.

The water supply this year for irrigation can be said to be excellent for this area, Mr. Simmons said.

Priests Polled On Question Of Marriage

NEW YORK (AP) —More than 7,000 Roman Catholic priests in the New York area are being polled on whether priests should be allowed to marry.

The Rev. Robert T. Francoeur, spokesman for an unoffi*cial group* called the Metropolitan Coordinating Committee, said the committee began Monday to mail out cards asking a "yes," "no," or "no opinion" response to three questions:

"Do you favor a change to optional celibacy for the diocesan clergy?"

"Do you favor a request to the Synod of Rome by the National Conference of American Bishops that the conference be empowered to introduce optional celibacy in the United States?"

"Do you favor the readmission to active ministry to those married priests who wish to return to the priestly ministry?"

Father Francoeur said the approximately 15 committee members hoped to use results of the poll to "convince the American bishops that changing the celibacy requirements for priests is a pressing problem."

The Daily Investor

By WILLIAM A. DOYLE

Q. As I understand it, when investors buy shares of a mutual fund all the money they pay in (except commissions) go into the fund and become the property of all the shareholders of that particular fund.

If this is the case, what about mutual fund management companies? The stocks of those companies are traded in the over-the-counter market and pay dividends. I don't understand this, at all.

A. You're not alone. Most people — including the majority of mutual fund shareholders — don't even know about fund management companies. You evidently just found out that such outfits exist.

Your first statement about mutual finds is correct. Say that you put $1,000 in a mutual fund. With a typical fund the commission charge is $85—leaving $915 of your money to be invested in shares of the fund.

Your $915 then is mingled with the money put in by other investors and your shares represent ownership of everything the fund has — cash, stocks, bonds and such.

*Now, here's where the man*agement companies come in. Most mutual funds have contracts with outside advisers. these are the fund management companies.

Typically, a fund will pay to its management company an annual fee based on the fund's total size. The usual fee used to be one-half of one per cent of the fund's assets. But for many funds it has been reduced.

In return for the fee the management company provides investment advice (telling the fund what securities to buy and sell), office space, clerical help and various other services. This is the "professional management" fund people are always talking about.

Besides the money it collects from the advisory fee, the management company normally acts as underwriter for the fund — meaning that it gets part of the commission on every share sold.

It takes no imagination to realize that a fund management company can be a very profitable business — especially when a management company is handling one or more big mutual funds.

Most mutual fund management companies are privately owned. But about 20 of them are publicly owned and have stock outstanding. Those stocks can be bought and sold, just as any other stocks can be. Some are listed on stock exchanges. Most are traded in the over-the-counter market.

Like any other companies, these management firms pay dividends to their shareholders out of their profits — the money they make managing mutual funds.

Can you explain what is meant by the words "on a proforma basis," which is found in the financial reports of many companies regarding mergers?

A. Let's give it a try. In this context, the big dictionary defines "pro-forma" as "giving retroactive effect to new combination or other change in the status of a business concern or concens."

In other words, a pro-forma balance sheet or earnings report of a company shows the latest information reported by the company and reflects the result of a merger.

For instance, if Company A merges with Company B, the balance sheet of the combined companies will show the assets and liabilities of the merged companies for the latest reporting date and also what part of the assets and liabilities came from Company A and Company B.

In the same tone the latest earnings report will show the total profits of the merged company for the period covered by the report and indicate how much of the earnings resulted from the operations of the companies that existed before the merger.

Sure, these things are somewhat complicated. My advice is to stop worrying about them. Leave the figuring to the accountants.

(Doyle will answer only representative letters of general interest in his column. He cannot answer phone queries.)

Business Mirror

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — With so many industrialists collecting art for the sake of business as well as art, it is understandable that swindlers should move in. *Fake art is a profitable busi*ness.

Even those industrialists who are acknowledged authorities on the subtleties of art, and who collect for love rather than money, are considered quite vulnerable.

The most recent alleged swindle involves paintings purchased by Algur H. Meadows of Dallas, Tex., a highly successful oilman, who some New York dealers claim was swindled out of hundreds of thousands of dollars.

There is an enormous demand today for such as Miros, Derains, Chagalls, Modiglianis, Picassos. So great is the demand, in fact, that it far exceeds the supply. And so the stage is set.

Clever swindlers might commission a fake, obtain elaborate pedigrees, show the fake in respectable place, and then put it on the market as the real thing. Desire overcomes discretion and the fake is purchased.

The painting then might adorn the reception hall of a corporation, or more often will hang in spurious splendor in the industrialist's home, to be admired by his insurance agent and perhaps only a few friends.

As authentic paintings hang they grow in value, because the art market is inflated with willing cash buyers. Within the past year a small Renoir, 15 by 18 inches, sold for $290,000 in Paris.

In New York, Parke-Bernet auction galleries reported in the last complete season it obtained its greatest gross sales in the 29 years of its existence, some $23,519,367. A Cezanne was sold for $800,000.

Christie's, a London auctioneer, boasted recently of its success in obtaining important pictures from Americans, some of them industrialists, for sale in London. The reason, is said, was higher prices than in New York.

"It also reflects the way the art market booms even when money is tight," said John Richardson, U.S. representative. "There is every indication prices will go still higher. The moral is that art is often a safer investment than the stock market."

Tiger In Familiar Role Of Underdog For Title Rematch With Torres

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP) — Dick Tiger, an upset winner of the world light heavyweight boxing title in December, finds himself in the old familiar role of underdog again when he meets Jose Torres in a rematch Tuesday night at Madison Square Garden. "I beat him before and I can do it again," was Tiger's comment on the reported 9-5 odds favoring Torres, the Puerto Rican-born New Yorker. "I'll knock his brains out," said Torres. "I knock him out within 10 rounds. I'll definitely quit if I lose. I might even quit if I win."

The 15-round match will be carried on a national television network of Madison Square Garden-RKO General Presentations but New York will be blacked out.

Fight time is 10 p.m. EDT.

In this era of multiple rematches and fighters who shift back and forth from division to division, the bout will be the eighth championship bout for Tiger and the sixth for torres.

Tiger, a sturdy Nigerian who has been boxing as a pro since 1955, won the middleweight crown in 1962, defended it twice successfully, lost it to Joey Giardello, won it back from Giardello and lost it again to Emile Griffith. The poker-faced veteran then moved up to the light heavy class and won over Torres, Dec. 16, on a unanimous decision.

Torres won the light heavy title from Willie Pastrano in 1965 but was inactive for 10 months because of an attack of pancreatitis. He had risked his crown in 1962, defendel it twice Wayne Thornton, Eddie Cotton and Chic Calderwood before he lost to Tiger. He had gone into the first Tiger match a 3-1 favorite.

After the December bout, Torres was placed on the "ill and unavailable list" briefly because of his "recent past history of relapsing pancreatitis."

However, doctors of the New York State Athletic Commission have examined Jose and found him fit for battle. He expects to come in at close to 175 pounds, the class limit, while Tiger probably will weigh about 166.

15th Hole Is Big Difference In Meet

By BEN THOMAS

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — George Knudson, like Frank Beard, will always have fond memories of the 15th hole at Lakewood Country Club. Knudson, an ex-caddy from Canada, used a shot "I didn't know I had in my bag" Sunday at 15 and went on to capture the $20,000 first-prize money in the $100,000 Greater New Orleans Open Golf Tourney. He beat Jack Nicklaus by a shot, keeping the Ohio strongboy from his first official victory on the PGA national tour this year and whetting Nicklaus' appetite for this week's Colonial National Invitational in Fort Worth, Tex.

Nicklaus made no excuses, save for a wry comment about landing in a bunker "where it looked like about 30 people had been walking in it."

"Well, on to next week," he said as he picked up his $12,000 check for second place.

Knudson, 29, was the only player in this year's tourney to get a birdie on the 53-yard par 5 hole. Beard, who finished third this year, won the tourney last year with an eagle on the same hole.

Nicklaus hit what "I thought was a good put" from three feet on the same hole for a birdie, "but it hit the bottom of the hole and came out."

Nicklaus and Knudson began the final round over the windswept course, with its 7,020-yards playing short because of sun-baked fairways, tied for the lead. Beard was two shots back.

Knudson wound up with a 70, two under par, for a 72-hole score of 277. Nicklaus' final round was 70. So was Beard's.

Bob Charles, Billy Casper, Tommy Bolt, Gardiner Dickinson and South African rookie Cobie LeGrange all deadlocked for fourth earning $3,620 each.

Casper and LeGrange had closing round 67s.

Casper won the All America Gold Cup and the $5,000 cash for first that goes with it. The award goes to the golfer with the lowest combined scores for this tourney, the Masters, PGA and U.S. Open.

Arnold Palmer had a 10-stroke lead in the competition for the cup coming into this tourney, but decided to skip New Orleans and spurned the extra dough.

Probe Slated Into Soccer Foul Calls

NEW YORK (AP) — Commissioner Ken Macker of the National Professional Soccer League said Monday he had ordered an investigation of statements attributed to referee Peter Rhodes in Toronto that he called 11 false fouls in Sunday's Toronto-Pittsburgh game to permit time for the CBS-TV commercials.

Macker said he had not talked to Rhodes but other league officials quoted him as saying "I did not call any false fouls. It would violate the laws of the game and would be dishonest and unfair to the players. A foul means a free kick, which could land in the goal area.", Macker declared league policy is to introduce commercials at natural breaks in play such as out-of-bound kicks, after goals, and during serious injuries.

Rhodes was quoted in Toronto that he was notified by the beep-beep of an electronic device strapped on his back to halt play for a commercial. The league declared these halts came when men were on the ground injured and said Rhodes declared "this did not interfere in any way with the outcome of the game."

The controversy highlights what many experts thought would be a prime difficulty of televising both soccer and hockey and finding appropriate time for commercials. Both are fast and fluid games with few breaks.

Young Pro Golfer Back In School

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Beverly Klass, who at 10 is the youngest professional in history, shot a 99 in the final round of the Dallas Civitan Women's Open Golf Tournament Monday then left for Woodland Hills, Calif., to go back to school.

She wasn't quitting the women's tour, however. When school lets out June 2 she will return to play throughout the summer.

Her next tournament then will be at Milwaukee.

The Civitan was her first tourney as a pro.

Beverly wasn't satisfied with her final round which made her score 365 for 72 holes.

"I have a lot of improving to do," she said, her brown eyes showing seriously through her spectacles.

She had rounds of 88-88-90-99 in the Civitan.

Hartack To Ride Barbs Delight

BALTIMORE (AP) — With Bill Hartack back in the saddle, trainer-owned Hal Steele Jr. felt reassured Monday about gambling $10,000 on Barbs Delight in Saturday's $150,000-added Preakness at Pimlico.

Steele and his two partners had felt uneasy about putting up that much just to make Barbs Delight eligible for the second leg of the triple crown for 3-year-old thoroughbreds.

With the experienced hands of Hartack on the reins again, Steele was more relaxed.

The 36-year-old trainer refused to speculate whether Barbs Delight might have been able to hold off the stretch winning drive by Proud Clarion in the Kentucky Derby if Hartack had been aboard instead of Ken Knapp.

Hartack rode Dr. Isby in the Derby finishing 12th in a field of 14.

Next Saturday, Knapp is committed to ride in New Jersey.

Also expected in the 1 3-16 mile Preakness are Damascus, Ask The Fare, In Reality, Great Power and Reason to Hail. If they are entered Thursday, In Reality and Great Power will be joining the Derby contingent.

Umpire Insists He's Not Ham, He Merely Does What Comes Naturally

By WILL GRIMSLEY

NEW YORK (AP) — Emmett Littleton Ashford, the American League umpire who makes every decision a Broadway production, insists he's not a television ham — he just does what comes naturally.

"I've been working this way every since I started 16 years ago," the 48-year-old Californian, said Monday. "I guess you'd just call it a God-given talent."

He doesn't deny he has color.

"Two ways," he says, with an amused wink.

He refers to the color of his skin, which is black — he is the first and only Negro umpire in the majors — and to his field technique which has been conservatively described as "flamboyant" and "exuberant."

When he calls a man out on base, his voice booms like a cannon and his gestures would shame the Barrymores. There's no one in the farthest reaches of the stands who doesn't know whether the man is safe or out.

"There's no use trying to hide anything," Ashford explained. "My philosophy in umpiring always has been to let the fans and the players know what's going on. An umpire can't afford to be wishy-washy. He must be firm and definite."

Baseball people concede that the Negro ump has an unusual flair but the consensus is that he is not obnoxious, that he is not strictly a show boat and is the hustlingest blue coat in the game.

Ashford often pirouettes like a ballet dancer, spins and pivots like a broken-field halfback and back-peddles like a Keystone cop on a berserk movie screen, but he has a rare knack for always being where the play is.

Ashford, a resident of Los Angeles, married but without children, quit a good job in the payroll and finance department of the Los Angeles Post Office to begin umpiring in the Pacific Coast League in 1951. He was called up by the American League in September, 1965.

He says he's had no racial problems with either the fans or players.

A short, graying man — 5-7, 187 pounds, inclined to paunchiness — Asford said so far he has been forced to throw only two men out of games.

"One was Eddie Brinkman, the Senators shortstop," he said. "Mister Brinkman threw his cap down very hard. The other was Alvin Dark, manager of the Athletics and a gentleman from Louisiana. Mister Dark and I had an ethical conversation and I was compelled to eject him. But he was right. I blew the play."

Ashford said he has as much trouble from members of his own race. "I called Willie Mays out three or four times in spring training," he added, "and I thought the NAACP was going to have my scalp."

Race Looms Between Two Top Horses

By ORLO ROBERTSON

NEW YORK (AP) — A race at one mile between Buckpasser, holder of the world record, and Dr. Fager, fastest 3-year-old horse ever to travel the distance in New York, was a possibility today.

The chance of such a meeting became likely when Johnny Nerud, trainer of Dr. Fager, announced the flashy colt from W.L. McKnight's Tartan Stable would not be a starter in next Preakness at Pimlico. Nerub said he was thinking of the Jersey Derby or the Metropolitan Handicap for his star's next race.

Both the Jersey Derby and Metropolitan are $100,000-added events with the former a 1⅛-mile stake exclusively for 3-year-olds and the latter a one-mile event open to all ages. The Jersey Derby will be raced at Garden State Park and the Metropolitan at Aqueduct, both on Memorial Day, May 30.

Much depends on the weights assigned by Tommy Trotter, Aqueduct handicapper, May 25.

"My horse gets 14 pounds by scale," said Nerud as he enthused over Dr. Fager's six-length victory over previously unbeaten Tumiga in last Saturday's $58,300 Withers at Aqueduct. It was his second victory in as many starts this year and his sixth in seven career outings.

In addition to Dr. Fager, Tumiga of the Withers field will by-pass the Preakness with the latter slated to make his next start in the Jersey Derby.

Steelhead Returning To Lemhi

SALMON — Prospects for reestablishing a steelhead run in the Lemhi River continue to brighten.

To date, 15 steelhead have arrived on their long journey from the ocean to spawn in the Lemhi.

The Idaho Fish and Game Department said the fish were reared from eggs planted in a Lemhi River tributary back in 1962.

Eleven of the fish are females and eggs have been taken from eight of them and placed in incubation facilities at the nearby Hayden Creek rearing ponds.

The 11 females are expected to produce 55,000 eggs, nearly as many as the 60,000 eggs planted in 1962, the first year of the progran to reintroduce steelhead into the Lemhi.

Young steelhead raised at the Hayden Creek rearing ponds are leaving for the ocean now with some 55,000 counted out to date.

Foyt, Andretti Expected To Start Quick At Indianapolis

By DALE BURGESS

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—It will surprise nobody in the American racing clan if A. J. Foyt Jr., is running second to Mario Andretti before the end of the first lap in the 51st 500-mile auto race May 30. From there on, it's anybody's guess. Foyt qualified last Saturday with the fourth fastest time, which means he will start directly behind the record-smashing Andretti on the inside of the second row. "I couldn't ask for a better spot," the Houston, Tex., driver said Monday. "I'll know the man in front of me is going to go from the starting line."

Foyt will be driving a Coyote Ford of his own design, a rear-engine job which has one refinement which has restored Foyt's confidence, if it ever had been affected.

He will carry a freon gas fire extinguisher which will flood the cockpit in 15 to 17 seconds in case of an accident. Either impact or a flash of light will trigger the device.

Foyt ordered the system built after he suffered badly burned hands last June in a wreck at Milwaukee. That accident kept him out of racing for 3½ months. He tried to race in the Atlanta 300 but his hands blistered.

He apparently was on his way back in the September Hoosier Hundred at Indianapolis, leading with two laps to go, when his brake pedal snapped off. He hit the retaining wall, "and I don't know why I didn't go through it." Andretti charged past him and won.

"After that I said the hell with it the rest of the season," Foyt said.

Foyt qualified at 166.289 m.p.h. He said he hoped to do 168, around Andretti's speed, but he was fairly well satisfied.

Foyt, two time Indianapolis winner and only driver who ever won the U.S. national championship four times, says he feels good, the car handles beautifully, and he's ready to go racing on Memorial Day.

Perez Lifts Redlegs Over Pirates 8-7

CINCINNATI (AP) — Tony Perez' run-scoring double in the 10th inning lifted the Cincinnati Reds to an 8-7 comeback victory over Pittsburgh Monday night despite Roberto Clemente's three homers and a double which drove in all the Pirate runs.

Tommy Harper led off the 10th with a single off reliever Juan Pizarro. One out later, Pete Rose forced Harper at second. Perez then doubled off the center field wall for his fourth hit in the game as Rose raced home with the winning run.

The victory halted Pittsburgh's three-game winning string and moved National League-leading Cincinnati three games ahead of the second-place Pirates.

Clemente, who lashed two-run homers in the first and fifth innings and drilled a two-run double in the seventh, sent the Pirates ahead 7-5 in the ninth with a bases-empty blast.

But the Reds tied the score in the bottom of the ninth when Perez singled with one out off Pizarro and Lee May followed with a two-run homer into the right field seats.

But the unbeaten Veale, bidding to become the majors' first six-game winner, was knocked out in the sixth when the Reds struck for three runs.

Plott Claims Honors In Pistol Shoot

Just behind Plott were Ray Thornton and John Brewer, both of Twin Falls and the Idaho State Police.

The trophies were presented by Floyd Higens of the Burley City Police.

Astros Down Dodgers 5-3 In 10 Innings

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Bob Aspromonte crashed a two-run triple in the 10th inning, giving Houston a 5-3 victory over Los Angeles Monday night that ended the Astros' five-game losing streak.

Aspromonte's two-out drive to right field scored Joe Morgan and Rusty Staub, snapping a 3-3 deadlock and handing Dodger reliever Phil Egan his first loss since May 13, 1966.

Regan, who had won 15 straight decisions — including two this year, replaced Ron Perranoski in the 10th and gave up a leadoff single to Morgan. After Jim Wynn sacrificed and Ed Mathews popped up for the second out, Egan walked Staub intentionally, setting the stage for Aspromonte.

The Dodgers rallied for two runs in the eighth to tie the game 3-3.

Homers Pace Cubs Over Giants 9-3

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Ernie Banks' three-run homer and two-run shots by Lee Thomas and Billy Williams powered the Chicago Cubs to a 9-3 victory over San Francisco Monday.

The victory was the seventh in eight games for the Cubs while the Giants had a four-game win streak snapped.

The Cubs loaded the bases with none out in the ninth and Ron Santo's sacrifice fly off Giant reliever Frank Linzy drove in one run. Banks' shot, his sixth of the season, then went over the left-field wall.

Thomas hit his home run in the Cubs' three-run sixth inning off starter Ron Herbel. Williams, who also collected three singles, belted his third homer off reliever Lindy McDaniel in the seventh.

Pacer, Driver Get Along On Track Only

WESTBURY, N.Y. (AP) — Romulus Hanover and Billy Haughton don't get along very well in the stable. On the race track it's different.

Romulus Hanover is a 3-year-old colt who won the $178,064 Messenger Stakes at Roosevelt Raceway, harness racing's richest race and the first leg in the pacing Triple Crown. Haughton is one of harness racing's best known drivers.

"He's the greatest I've ever driven," enthused Haughton after his problem colt had beaten the favored Best of All by 2½ lengths for the $89,032 first prize Saturday night. "I've never had a horse with as much speed as this one."

Haughton didn't accompany Romulus back to the stable.

"I stay away from him there," Haughton said. "He minds only his groom in the stall and I don't want him to take a bite out of me."

Romulus Hanover now has won three of four starts this year and 4 of 142 lifetime. He has a bankroll of $9,958 and is favored to win the Little Brown Jug and the Cane Pace and sweep pacing's Triple Crown. An entry with Nardin's Byrd, who finished third, he paid $5.60, $2.60 and $2.80 in the Messenger.

Campaneris, Athletics Tip Angels 5-2

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Bert Campaneris triggered two early scoring rallies with singles, leading the Kansas City Athletics past California 5-2 Monday night for their fourth straight victory.

The A's staked right-hander John (Blue Moon) Odom to a 5-1 lead in the first four innings, but he needed relief help from rookie Tony Pierce in the seventh after yielding seven hits, including Don Mincher's sixth homer.

Campaneris led off the first inning against loser Rick Clark with a single and raced to third on Ramon Webster's single. Rick Monday grounded out, with Webster taking second, before Campaneris scored on a wild pitch. Webster reached third on the play and scored on Danny Cater's ground out.

In the third, Campaneris beat out a bunt, continued to second on Clark's wild throw past first and scored on a double by Monday.

Miss Englehorn Ties For Eighth

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Shirley Englehorn of Caldwell won $602 Monday when she tied for eighth place in the $16,800 Dallas Civitan women's open golf tournament.

Miss Englehorn shot rounds of 67-73-72-76 for a 288 total—seven strokes behind winner Joann Prentice.

Golfer Uses Stand To Win Tournament

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Jo Ann Prentice got help from a cold drink stand off the 18th green and shot a closing four-over-par 75 Monday to win the $16,800 Dallas Civitan Open women's golf tournament by a stroke over fast-closing Judy Kimball.

Miss Prentice had 281 for 72 holes, tying the tournament record.

Her ball was stopped by the drink stand as she overshot the 18th green and she had a 30-foot chip onto the carpet. She got within 18 inches and ran the putt for a par that gave her a second tournament victory in 12 years on the tour.

Miss Kimball had birdied 18 with an 18-inch putt. She shot a 73 for 282.

There was only one under par score the final day as the wind gusted to 25 miles per hour. That was by Carol Mann, the tall blonde who is playing despite a pinched disc. She had a 69 for 284.

Miss Prentice started the final round, which was set back from Sunday because of rain, with a three-stroke lead over Sandra Spuzich, Miss Kimball and Beth Stone.

Miss Stone finished with 285 and Miss Spuzich with 287.

Chicago Pitching Makes Up For Poor Bat Average

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago White Sox have captured the American League lead by throwing their weight around. They aren't hitting it.

They have a puny team batting average of .223. But in the last 120 innings, the pitching has accomplished a 1.20 earned run average.

The Sox take a 10-game winning streak, longest in the managerial career of Eddie Stanky, against the invading Minnesota Twins Tuesday night.

Monday was an off day for the Sox, but Stanky had a full-scale two-hour workout with emphasis on hitting.

He figures there is a score to settle with the Twins. They clobbered the Sox nine straight times last year and carted off the season series 14-4.

In sweeping a four-game set with California over the weekend, Joe Horlen, Jim O'Toole, Tommy John, Gary Peters and relief master, Bob Locker, permitted only three runs and struck out 31 batters.

~~Before leaving town, the An~~gels' manager, Bill Rigney muttered, "the Sox are good, but they're not that good."

"Their pitching staff is the best in the league from top to bottom but they shouldn't be throwing one-hitters and shutting everybody out.

"I'll tell you what I think it is," continued Rigney. "I think a hitter gets psyched when he plays here. The expanse of this park gives it a helluva reputation.

"We come to town and the hitters think to themselves: 'Forget it.' This place is built for pitching and speed. If a hitter isn't trying to overcome the wind, he's trying to overcome the dimensions.

"My players say they can't see the ball well at night because of that big scoreboard. I wonder what excuse they've got for the daytime?"

Non-Resident License Sales Set At 15,000

BOISE (AP)—More than 15,000 sportsmen bought non-resident hunting or fishing licenses in Idaho last year, the Idaho Fish and Game Department reported Monday.

The non-residents came from all 49 other states, the District of Columbia and eight foreign countries, with Californians topping the list at 8,105. Utahns buying Idaho licenses numbered 1,891 and Washington, 1,725.

Reds' Chief Says Strong Bench Reason His Team Is In First

CINCINNATI (AP)—"I always said we had a good bench and this proves it." That was the comment Monday from Cincinnati Reds' Manager Dave Bristol as he looked over the National League standings. It showed his Reds still in first place despite the fact two of his top hitters have been out of the lineup for a week and a third one missed two full games. Bristol still doesn't know when third baseman Deron Johnson and second baseman Tommy Helms will be back. "It's a day-to-day proposition; I just have to see what the doctor says," Bristol said.

Johnson was hitting .295 with seven home runs and 20 runs batted in when he pulled a hamstring muscle. Helms, the 1966 rookie-of-the-year, was hitting .291 with 7 RBI when he suffered a toe fracture.

Both injuries occurred in the same game at Atlanta a week ago. Then center fielder Vada Pinson suffered a leg injury and missed two games last week. He was hitting .307 at the time.

He got back in as a pinch hitter Saturday and returned to full-time duty Sunday.

To fill the other gaps, Bristol ~~has used Chico Ruiz at second~~ base and Tony Perez was shifted from first to third with Lee May taking over at first.

Ruiz hasn't been tearing the cover off the ball but he has been brilliant in the field. Perez playing out of his normal posi*tion has had 7 hits in 27 times* at bat through Sunday, has had two home runs and driven in six runs in the week.

Floyd Robinson was two-for-five filling in part time for Pinson with a key triple.

"Everybody has been doing his job," said Bristol. "I have told everyone on the club to be mentally and physically ready because they might have to play and they have done it."

The Reds have won four of seven since Johnson and Helms were knocked out of action.

They won both of the games in which Pinson was unable to play.

Life Getting Easier For Young Hurler

By HAL BOCK

Associated Press Sports Writer

Life gets easier all the time for young Gary Nolan, who was battling high school hitters in Oroville, Calif, a year ago.

Now, all he has to worry about are Willie Mays, Roberto Clemente and the rest of the National League.

"I was hit harder in high school than I have been so far this year," grinned Nolan after his five-hitter had blanked Philadelphia 1-0 and given Cincinnati a sweep of Sunday's doubleheader.

The Reds won the opener 2-1 on Vada Pinson's eighth-inning homer and the four-hit pitching of Jim Maloney and Ted Abernathy.

Nolan is the precocious 18-year-old right-hander who came to the Cincinnati camp as a non-roster player and won a regular job. He is 3-1 with a 2.12 earned run average and the poise of a man twice his age.

"I don't get nervous because when I came to the Reds I felt I could pitch big league ball," Nolan said.

"I love what I've seen of him," said Dave Bristol, the Reds' manager. "No kicking, no tugging, no pulling. He just goes to work and puts the ball over with something on it."

Nolan had plenty on it against the Phillies. He struck out eight and now has fanned 48 in 46 2-3 innings. The shutout was his first in organized ball.

The youngster's confidence may come from the fact that he was the Reds' first choice in the free agent draft last June. A $65,000 bonus never hurt anybody's confidence.

Nolan was 7-3 with 163 strikeouts in 104 innings at Sioux Falls of the Northern League after signing last year. He was still on the Sioux Falls roster this spring but not for long.

Consecutive first inning doubles by Pete Rose and Tony Perez gave Nolan the only run he needed against the Phillies in the second game.

Maloney worked into the ninth of the opener but had to leave when his right shoulder became sore. Abernathy got the last two outs.

Clay Makes Bid To Delay His Trial

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Cassius Clay made a bid Monday to delay his trial for draft evasion.

Clay's attorneys mailed to a U.S. Fifth Circuit Appeals Court panel sitting here this week a request for an order delaying criminal proceedings against him until final disposition of Clay's civil case against selective service.

The appeals panel, headed by Chief Judge Elbert Tuttle of Atlanta, took no immediate notice of the request and there was no indication whether it will come up during the week the panel is meeting in Jacksonville.

No action on any case involving Clay is on the calendar of the court.

Clay's draft evasion trial is scheduled for June 5 at Houston. He has appealed his civil case, dismissed by U.S. District Court.

Clay, who prefers to be known at Muhammed Ali, claims he should be draft exempt as a Muslim minister. He was stripped of his heavyweight boxing title after he refused to be sworn into the armed services April 28.

Bobcats Trim Idaho State, 10-2 and 3-2

DIAMOND SUIT USED AS THREAT

The introduction to Mary Jane Farell's chapter on "Bridge for Women" mentions that long before she took over as the world's leading master point winner among women she had established a reputation as the most ethical, courteous and nicest opponent one could meet.

Opening lead—♥ K

We aren't going to go quite that far. We will say that she ties for first in each of those three categories with a few other women and some men.

Jules Farell, her husband, is a mighty good player also and he and Mary Jane have won many titles together.

Mary Jane has taken on the tough job of discussing preemptive bids. We aren't going to get into the merit or lack of merit of East's pass of the three spade double or of South's nonvulnerable three spade opening.

Suffice to say, that the game was match point duplicate and South was playing three spades doubled. He didn't like his prospects. It looked as if the best he could do would be to collect five spade tricks and lose 700 points which would be a very bad score because all East and West could make would be a vulnerable game in either hearts or notrump.

Mary Jane points out that South held his losses to a respectable 500 by using the diamond suit as a threat. He ruffed the second heart and led a diamond. West was in with the ten and cashed his queen to see if everyone would follow. When East showed out, West decided to lead ace and another spade which gave South a sixth trump trick.

We have only space to point out that as long as South played nothing but diamonds and would make the right guess in case East led the five of spades after taking his diamond late South was sure of his sixth trick and a good score.

Q—The bidding has been:

East	South	West	North
1 ♦	1 ♠	Pass	2 ♠
Pass	?

You, South, hold:
♠AJ1065 ♥2 ♦K43 ♣AQ86
What do you do?

A—Bid something. We favor going right to four spades, but if you want to be conservative, bid only three.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Instead of bidding two spades your partner jumps to three spades. What do you do now?

Making The Grade Or Breaking The Boy?

Dear Ele and Walt: My good friend is not very interested in school. He's smart, I know, but he just doesn't see the point of geometry and history and things like that and so he's flunking out. His parents really get burned about this. Each afternoon his mom picks him up five minutes after school. He's driven home, gets 15 minutes to relax, and then has to study on the kitchen table under eye until dinner is ready. After dinner his dad watches him from 7 to 9 p.m. Then his sister takes over until 10:30. On weekends they modify the schedule, but it still comes up to 6 hours of study a day. He's lost all TV and car privileges. His friends can't talk to him on the telephone, and he can't even have dates. According to them these rules will stay in effect until he gets a C average. I think he'll crack up before he gets the C's. What can I do?—Wendell.

Dear Wendell: Alert your school counselor to the situation, and also any teacher who's taken special interest in your pal. We agree that all work and no play can stretch a young person to the breaking point. Is there any subject in which you're competent enough to tutor him? Even an hour of your company twice a week could give him the friendly touch he needs so desperately.—Ele and Walt.

SHY GUY

Dear Ele: There is this boy at school I like a real lot, but he never pays attention to me unless I wear something tight. Then he stares at me and whistles. Boy, do I get embarrassed! When someone asks him if he likes me he just gives a wicked smile and changes the subject. How do I know if he likes me and how can I get him to talk to me?—36-23-36.

Dear 36: Want to know a secret? It's likely that the whistler is a shy guy, who doesn't know how to make direct contact with you. When you give him a public show, he pipes his admiration.

So try smiling at him daily for the next week, then add a "hi" (but don't stop in the corridors) for the following week. This might ease his shyness. And the tight clothes? Well I'd offer this old stand-by: "A girl should wear clothes tight enough to show she's a woman, but loose enough to prove she's a lady." Do you?—Ele.

GRIPE OF THE WEEK

Dear Ele and Walt: I have a complaint to make about the people who tell a babysitter at the last minute that they don't need her. These people (I'll call them the Browns) asked me to babysit one day 20 minutes after school was out. I gave up a trip to the store with my friend and didn't walk home with the gang, just so I could get home in time to babysit.

Well, when I went up to the house, Mr. Brown said, "We're not going out today after all, and we won't need you Saturday night either." I turned down a Saturday date with a boy I really like, so I wouldn't harm the Browns' plans, and they didn't even bother to call my mother and leave a message.

Come on adults, if you want to set a good example for your kids, start by showing some con*sideration for your babysitters!* —Complaining.

Shy Lothario? Our "Dating Hints for the Fellows" can give you an assist in asking the girl for a date and in how to act once she says "yes." Send a dime and a a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope to Dateline in care of this newspaper.

Some evenings, the best thing on the television is the "off" switch.

There's nothing like summer camp for the kids to give parents a fine vacation.

78-Year-Old Dropout To Get Diploma

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP) — Theodosia Johnson is graduating from high school 62 years after quitting a one-room Georgia schoolhouse just as she was beginning to learn fractions.

She says those fractions kept bothering her during a half century of working as a waitress and taking in folks' laundry.

"My stepfather was a slave and he never went to school. When he was freed, he learned to read and write real good without school. He said we could do what he did," she recalls.

But one day in 1963, Miss Johnson, 78, told some passing school children to ask their teacher if she could come to classes, too.

"They were anxious for me to go when I asked them," she said.

She was advised to enroll in special adult elementary school classes and eventually transferred to adult evening classes at Rochelle Senior High School. Today she steps forward with 29 younger students and receives her diploma.

With a wide, gentle smile, she added, "It was easier than I thought it would be. Teaching was plainer than when I was a girl."

At the turn of the century, Miss Johnson said, "They whipped you for making a mistake. Now a teacher explains why."

Born on a farm near Philema, Ga., Miss Johnson grew up in a series of small saw mill camps. Her first schooling was in a church classroom at Sibley, Ga.

On her way to earning her diploma Miss Johnson developed a keen taste for history, particularly Egyptian history.

"I like to read about the pharaohs," she said.

In the story of Hebrew bondage in Egypt, Miss Johnson says she sees parallels with Negro slavery.

Now, she believes, the Negro people are out of bondage. "When we were slaves, we were not allowed to be educated. Now we are hardly allowed to be uneducated," she said.

Kennedy And Reagan Split On War Issues

NEW YORK (AP) — Face-to-face on split television screens around the nation Monday night, Sen. Robert F. Kennedy and Gov. Ronald Reagan divided too on issues essential to the resolution of the war in Vietnam.

The New York Democrat answered "yes" and the California Republican "no" to a question on whether the National Liberation Front, the political arm of the Viet Cong, should take part in any future peace talks.

They took opposite positions in a discussion on the effect of mass protests against the war.

Kennedy said people who question United States policy would be unpatriotic if they did not express their beliefs and added, "If all the protests and demonstrations ended today, the war would not end."

Reagan contended that the demonstrations prolong the war because they give encouragement to the enemy.

The two leaders, often mentioned as possible opponents in the 1972 presidential race, appeared on the CBS "Town Meeting of the World" in which they answered questions from 17 students in London.

Kennedy, talking from a New York studio in part of a hookup made via the Early Bird communications satellite, said it was unfortunate that a military regime should rule in a country like Geece where democracy began.

Reagan, in California, had a different point of view. He said, "I'm not sure that the forces that the military junta rose up to put down were completely dedicated to Greece's welfare."

HOW TO WRITE

A GOOD

CLASSIFIED WANT AD

1—IT'S ALWAYS BEST to start your advertisement with the name of the article or service you have to offer. If you have an apartment or room for rent or property for sale start your advertisement with the location.

2—BE CLEAR. Readers respond more quickly and favorably when given complete or definite information. One of the very most important aspects of any advertisement is to include the price.

3—MAKE IT EASY for the reader-prospect to reach you. Always insert your telephone number or your name and address. If you do not have regular hours, give a preferred time to have prospects contact you.

4—THE GREATEST READER ATTENTION can be secured for your advertisement by using consecutive insertions. Play safe—a seven-day order is best and costs less! There are also very special monthly rates for those who are desirous of keeping their name and offering before the public every day. You can stop your ad in the event of results, and then you pay only for the days it is published.

5—PLACE YOURSELF in the reader's position and ask yourself what you would like to know (about your offer). The answer you give will make a good Classified Ad.

6—CLASSIFIED readers are already interested in buying your used or new merchandise. These people have the money and are already in the market to buy. So give them every advantage you can with good ad copy.

7—WANT ADS THAT FAIL to bring satisfaction do so, not through any lack of readership, but because they are often carelessly worded and do not contain enough information to get prompt action.

8—TO PLACE YOUR ADVERTISEMENT in the Twin Falls newspaper, where you reach the greatest Classified Want Ad audience in Magic Valley, for an Ad-taker. It's as easy as calling a friend because our Ad-takers are schooled to call 733-0931 or one of the Times-News' free phone numbers if you live in an area outside Twin Falls and ask be helpful in such matters remember, you get 7 days for the price of 6.

SPECIAL LIMITED ENROLLMENT! EXPIRES MIDNIGHT, MAY 30, 1967

A board of doctors creates a new kind of health plan for people over 40 only!

Gives you extra cash* over and above your present hospital insurance for the "danger years" ahead and—for the first time—actually pays money to help keep you well!

If you are over 40, you can qualify for the new 40-PLUS BENEFIT PLAN, if you mail your Enrollment Form no later than Midnight, May 30, 1967—and you can enroll for only $1.00!

This, surely, is among the greatest values, as well as the most unusual health insurance program, ever offered to men and women over 40! Think of it. Simply by the stroke of your pen, you can now get the valuable "extra cash" protection you've wanted at the very time when you are most apt to need it . . . all at a cost substantially less than you might expect!

How the 40-PLUS BENEFIT PLAN Differs from Ordinary Health Insurance

The 40-PLUS Benefit Plan has been created by an insurance company run by doctors, the Physicians Mutual Insurance Company, which has specialized in health and accident protection for physicians, surgeons and dentists exclusively for more than 64 years. Now this fine old "doctors company" offers a wonderful new "extra cash" plan to men and women over 40! And you may enroll during this Limited Enrollment Period—without having to see a company representative and without any red tape.

In short, if you are over 40, you can now qualify for 40-PLUS. No other qualifications are required—provided you enroll during this Limited Enrollment Period.

How 40-PLUS Helps Your Doctor Keep You Well

As you know, and as your doctor will tell you, people who have regular physical examinations have a better chance to stay well and live longer. For example, doctors know that if cancer is discovered in its early stages there is a much better chance of curing it. To encourage you to see your doctor regularly, 40-PLUS will pay up to $10 to help pay the cost of an annual routine physical check-up. You see your own doctor any time within 60 days after you receive your notice—but only if you want to.

But, of course, even if you see your doctor regularly, you can still be struck by sudden accident or illness and land in the hospital tomorrow. This is especially true during the dangerous "over 40" years when cancer, heart attack and other serious diseases are most apt to strike. That's why 40-PLUS also pays extra cash benefits direct to you—in addition to any other insurance or Medicare—for you to use any way you wish.

40-PLUS and the "Danger Years"

Of course, like most people over 40, you probably have some hospital insurance. But, as everyone knows, the most complete hospital insurance—even Medicare—simply doesn't cover everything. The fact is, you need more protection.

But now that you're over 40, now that you've entered the "danger years," it may be difficult to obtain the extra protection you need at a price you can afford—or, because of the condition of your health, you may not be able to obtain it at any price!

That's why the new 40-PLUS Benefit Plan is so important to you—it brings you the hard-to-obtain "over 40" protection you need, at remarkably low rates. For only pennies a day, 40-PLUS will give you extra cash to help fill the "financial gap" probably not covered by your present insurance or Medicare.

And remember this—even if your basic hospital expenses are covered—you'll still need help with all your regular household expenses!

Think for a moment—if you're a husband, father and breadwinner, and you're suddenly hospitalized, what happens? Your income stops. Your expenses go up. Even if you have some kind of "salary insurance," it probably won't come close to replacing your full-time pay. It's quite likely that you and your family will never fully recover the tremendous financial loss!

If you're a wife, mother and homemaker, and are suddenly hospitalized, what happens? Who will look after your family, see that the children get hot meals, are properly clothed? Who will do the laundry, the marketing, the cleaning? Your husband may lose time from his job . . . friends and relatives may have to help out temporarily . . . you may even have to hire full-time domestic help! Everything will be upset. Debts may be incurred, savings may be lost—worse still, peace of mind may be shattered, and even recovery can be seriously delayed!

If you're over 65, and are suddenly hospitalized, what happens? Medicare won't pay all of your hospital expenses or any of your household expenses. Most senior citizens can't afford to dip into savings it may have taken a lifetime to accumulate . . . or become a "burden" to their children or community. Surely you wouldn't want to become "dependent" after all the years it has taken you to secure your independence.

Now you can stop worrying—now that you can obtain the remarkable two-way protection of 40-PLUS.

Actually, important as all these extra cash benefits are, they are far from the only advantages you can now enjoy . . . if you act before the enrollment deadline.

For example:

Benefits Tax-Free—Can't Be Reduced

■ For as long as you live and continue to pay your premiums, we will never cancel or refuse to renew your policy for health reasons—and we guarantee that we will never cancel, modify or terminate your policy unless we decline renewal on all policies of this type in your entire state. Furthermore, your benefits will never be reduced—and all your benefits are tax-free!

Pays In Addition To Your Other Insurance

■ Yes, the 40-PLUS Benefit Plan pays you extra cash in addition to any other company's health insurance you may carry, individual or group—even pays you in addition to Medicare! Of course, you may have only one like policy with Physicians Mutual.

Surprisingly Low Cost

■ With these wonderful "keep well" and "get better" benefits, you might expect 40-PLUS to cost much more than other health plans—but, in fact, it costs considerably less than you might expect! Only $3.95 a month from age 40 through age 64—only $6.95 a month when you are 65 or over—no additional premiums can ever be assessed—and, regardless of your age, your first month is only $1.00!

A Respected Company

■ As important as all the valuable benefits, the low cost, and ease of enrollment is this vital fact: Your policy is backed by the resources, integrity and reputation of the Physicians Mutual Insurance Company, "the doctors company," specializing in health and accident protection for physicians, surgeons and dentists all across America, for more than 64 years. Doctors right in your own community know about us and may actually be insured by Physicians Mutual. Serving hundreds of thousands of policyholders throughout the United States direct by mail, Physicians Mutual has its headquarters in Omaha, Nebraska, and is licensed and incorporated in that state. Its Board of Directors is composed entirely of respected members of the medical, dental and insurance professions.

How Can They Offer So Much For So Little?

The question is a sensible one; and the answer makes good sense, too: By encouraging our members to see their doctors for routine check-ups each year . . . we hope to be able to keep more people out of the hospital. This means lower claims costs.

In addition, we have lower total sales costs. 40-PLUS is a mass enrollment plan. All business is conducted directly between you and the company by mail. No salesmen or investigators are used.

It all adds up to real savings we share with you by giving you high quality protection at low cost.

*$100 a week paid direct to you

in addition to any other hospital insurance—even Medicare!

Here's how this valuable "extra cash" protection pays off in your time of need; $100 a week ($14.28 a day) will be paid directly to you from the very first day of hospital confinement, for as long as 52 weeks, each time you are hospitalized for a new sickness or accident! You get paid for every day—even if you are hospitalized for only one day—as much as $5200 for a full year! Even if you are hospitalized for a full year and have received your full $5200 in benefits, if you should be so unfortunate as to be hospitalized again—you are still entitled to all benefits all over again, as long as you have been out of the hospital for at least six months between your hospital confinements.

Important: Here is a real "plus" for you if you have been told you are uninsurable. Even if you have suffered from chronic ailments in the past, the kinds of conditions that come back again and again or are likely to recur, 40-PLUS will cover you for these pre-existing conditions after your policy has been in force for two years.

Naturally, 40-PLUS will cover you for any new accident or sickness. Accidents are covered immediately as soon as your policy is in force. After your policy is 30 days old, you are covered for sicknesses which begin thereafter. There are only a few usual exceptions: war, military service, mental disorder or alcoholism, or if something happens "on the job" and is covered by Workmen's Compensation or Employers Liability Laws. You are free to go to any hospital of your own choice that makes a charge for room and board, with these exceptions only: nursing homes, convalescent or self-care units of hospitals, Federal hospitals, or any hospital primarily for treatment of tuberculosis, alcoholism, drug addiction or mental disorder.

Easy to Enroll—No Red Tape—No Salesman Will Call!

Simply fill out the short Enrollment below and mail it with $1.00 for your first month's coverage! We will issue your 40-PLUS Benefit Policy (Form P302 Series) immediately—the same day your Enrollment is received. This automatically puts your policy in force. Along with your policy, you will receive a simple, easy-to-use Claim Form. When you need your benefits, you can be sure that your claim will be given "top priority" treatment. In addition, we'll see to it that you receive special forms yearly to take to your doctor for your physical examination.

$1.00 NO RISK ENROLLMENT OFFER

There's No Risk or Obligation—Read Your Policy Before You Decide!

When you receive your policy, you'll see that it is direct, honest, easy to understand. But—and please note this carefully—if for any reason you change your mind, you may return your policy in 10 days and we will promptly refund your dollar!

Don't Wait Until the Deadline to Enroll!

Remember, the sooner we receive your Enrollment, the sooner 40-PLUS will cover you! So it's best you fill out and return your Enrollment now, before the deadline date arrives.

(Two Enrollments are provided below so that husbands and wives may both enroll. In that case, please be sure to enclose $1.00 for each Enrollment.)

URGENT:

WHY THIS OFFER HAS A DEADLINE AND WHY YOU SHOULD ENROLL NOW

This plan is offered to people over 40 without any qualifications only during this limited enrollment period. All you need to do is fill in the form below and mail it with your dollar. Your Enrollment must be postmarked no later than Midnight of the date on the form below—otherwise it cannot be accepted.

Your policy will be issued the same day we receive your Enrollment, which is why you have nothing to gain by waiting for the last minute. In fact you can actually lose. An unexpected sickness or accident could strike without warning—and you will not be covered until your policy is in force.

You are wise to play it safe by enrolling now. Only $1 pays for your first month. Remember: if for any reason you change your mind, you may return your policy within 10 days and your dollar will be promptly refunded. Since there's no obligation and you risk nothing, why not mail your Enrollment today?

Your Guide to 40-Plus Benefits

17 Important Questions Answered

1. What is the 40-PLUS BENEFIT PLAN?
It is a new health insurance plan for people over 40 only—that pays an extra cash income direct to you when you are hospitalized and, in addition, provides a physical examination benefit each year to help your doctor keep you well.

2. Why do I need 40-PLUS in addition to my regular health insurance or Medicare?
Probably your present hospital insurance—even Medicare—won't cover all your hospital expenses. But even if it did, you would still need help to pay all your regular household expenses while you are hospitalized.

3. Can I collect in addition to any other health insurance or Medicare?
Yes. 40-PLUS pays you in addition to any other company's health insurance you carry, group or individual—even in addition to Medicare! Of course, you may have only one like policy with Physicians Mutual.

4. Is there a lot of red tape to qualify?
No. The only qualification is that you be 40 or over—even people over 65 are welcome.

5. If I become hospitalized, when do my benefits begin?
$100 a week ($14.28 a day) will be paid directly to you from the very first day of hospital confinement.

6. How long will I be paid?
For as long as 52 weeks (as much as $5200.00) while you are hospitalized for each new sickness or accident. If the full 52 weeks has been used, and the same condition recurs, a new 52-week period will be provided if 6 months has elapsed between hospital confinements.

7. When does my policy go into force?
It becomes effective on the date your Enrollment is received. Accidents are covered on that date. After your policy has been in force for 30 days, you are covered for sicknesses which begin thereafter.

8. What if I have had a health problem that may occur again?
Pre-existing conditions are covered after your policy has been in force for two years.

9. What conditions aren't covered?
Only the usual exceptions: war, military service, mental disorder or alcoholism, or any condition covered by Workmen's Compensation or Employers Liability Laws.

10. Does 40-PLUS pay in any hospital?
You will be covered in any hospital anywhere in the world that makes a charge for room and board, except nursing homes, convalescent or self-care units of hospitals, Federal hospitals, or any hospital primarily for treatment of tuberculosis, alcoholism, drug addiction or mental disorder.

11. Can I drop out any time? Can you drop me?
No matter how many claims you make or how much you collect, we will never cancel or refuse to renew your policy for health reasons—for as long as you live. We guarantee that we will never cancel, modify or terminate your policy unless we decline renewal on all policies of this type in your entire state. You, of course, can drop your policy on any renewal date.

12. Will my claims be handled promptly?
Yes. With your policy, you will receive a simple, easy-to-use Claim Form. Your claims will be processed quickly and your checks will be sent directly to you.

13. How do I get my "Physical" each year?
40-PLUS actually pays your own doctor up to $10 annually toward your routine physical examination (but only if you want it). You receive special forms yearly to take to your doctor, so that he can give you your check-up within 60 days.

14. Why are the premiums so low?
Because this is a mass enrollment plan—and no salesmen are used—our volume is higher and our total sales costs are lower.

15. How much does my first month cost?
Only $1.00, regardless of age. After your first month, you pay only $3.95 a month until age 65; only $6.95 a month from age 65 and over.

16. Why is there a "deadline" date?
In order to offer the Plan to people over 40 without any qualifications and still maintain our low rate, we can only make the Plan available on this basis during a limited enrollment period. The deadline date is firm—we cannot accept your Enrollment unless postmarked on or before that date.

17. Why should I enroll right now?
Because an unexpected sickness or accident could strike without warning—and you will not be covered until your policy is in force. Remember, if for any reason you change your mind, you may return your policy within 10 days and your $1.00 will be refunded immediately.
